TRAFFIC AT STANDSTILL

BROKEN ENGINE DELAYS TRAINS THIS MORNING

Extra West has Traffic at its Mercy For Several Hours.

Traffic on the mainline was delayed several hours this morning by the breakdown of an engine on an extra West at Kamela. The engine was quite badly put out of commission temporarily. A weary crowd of would-be passengers watched number six as it was marked by slow degrees from on time to 10 o'clock. Both of the East bound trains were held West of the wreck.

Number 7 the morning train from the East was annulled at an early hour of the day.

NICKELSON GETS POST

SUCCEEDS BEUHLER AS THE DAY YARD MASTER HERE.

Beuhler Has Gone to Seattle Where he Has New Job.

Nickelson, for several years a member of the day switching crew, has been made the successor of T. E. Beuhler as day yard master.

Beuhler has gone to Seattle to take charge of the O. & W. terminal at that place under Superintendent Campbell.

Mr. Nickelson is now occupying his new position, a place eagerly sought by several who were in line for the place.
