NO PAPER SATURDAY

PAPER WILL OBSERVE DAY ALONG WITH OTHERS.

Hereafter Paper will be Regular in its Publication.

Much as it is regretted by the editor, there will be no issue of the Observer tomorrow due to the fact that the places of business, public and private offices, and in fact every walk in life is to observe the holiday.

Unless unforeseen circumstances arise, the Observer will greet its many readers regular every evening after Monday until another National holiday like a Fourth of July celebration or something equally as important, breaks in to the regular routine.

Advice to Patrons.

In this connection a word to our patrons: Telephone the office when papers fail to reach you regularly. Winds, storms, lethargy of the part of carriers all combine to prevent regular distribution. Our only safeguard is advice from the neglected.
