Cottage prayer meetings will be held Tuesday and Friday evenings of this week. These meetings are to be held in preparation for the coming evangelistic meetings. Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. French, I. W. Faulk leader, West La Grande at J. A. Oliver, Mrs. J. E. Coffey leader; East La Grande at the home of Ford A. Ellis, Geo. Tilton leader; North La Grande at the home of I. R. Snook, O. C. Freshman leader. Friday evening; South La Grande, at the home of I. W. Faulk, A. G. R. Snook leader.

The Grande Ronde Cook-book, edited by members of the Philathea class, is now off the press. Many copies have been sold. The Junior girls have taken the work of selling these books. The book contains something like 300 tested and tried receipts taken from the best homes of the Grande Ronde valley. This book is selling for the small sum of 50c. If you desire one of these books call Main 67, and one of the Junior girls will visit your home.

The Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. I. R. Snook, 1503 T. Ave., next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ladies of the church are urged to be present.

WHISTON & LONGMAN, evangelistic team will begin a meeting in the church, Sunday, February 6. These men are in a meeting at present at Grangeville, Idaho. They are fighting against snow, wind, rain and cold weather. No mail for three days and no mail out. Everything blocked by a great storm. In spite of the odds they are having conversions at every meeting. The local paper stated that Evangelist Whiston is speaking to large audiences at every meeting.

Aug. Nelson and his family are moving on a farm out east of town.

Grandma Glass has been on the sick list for some time. We have missed her at the church meetings.

Word has been received that I. W. Faulk will undergo an operation in the next month. This is a shock to her many friends.

Mr. J. E. Coffey is having his home repaired this week. His brother-in-law from Wallawa county is doing the work.

The new furnace at the church was covered with asbestos yesterday. D. E. Cook did the work.

The solo by Miss Lena McReynolds last Sunday evening was enjoyed by all.

A large audience greeted the minister last Sunday evening to hear the theme, "How to be Happy."

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.

Merchants are Finding Out Nothing Else Pays as Well.

Business concerns in many cities are deciding to forego advertising wagons, billboards, store windows and other similar expensive and ineffectual methods of advertising and will employ space in the newspapers hereafter. They will come to it in time. Advertising pays if the man who has something to sell explains his advertising so as to convince other people that it is worth buying. All the substitutes for newspaper advertising can be easily avoided or disregarded by the very people the advertiser tries hardest to attract. The man or woman that can afford to buy. They do not stand gaping at billboards, they do not take in hand bills, and they will not bother with circulars in the mail because they are too busy. But their old friend, the newspaper, is taken into the utmost privacy of the family circle. It is discussed at the breakfast table, it is read at leisure in the evening, and its pages are scrutinized with the interest born of long habit and discriminating taste. An advertisement in that newspaper goes into the family circle and cannot be excluded. It is welcome, and it goes there at the very time when the occasional domestic economical council takes place. There is no substitute for newspaper advertising—Exchange

THE EYE IMPORTANT

The eyes is one of the most important and delicate parts of the body. Sight is Priceless. Glasses should not be worn where no error of refraction exists, but where an error does exist they should be put on as soon as possible and worn constantly until the defect is cured. Wearing glasses once does not signify that they will always be worn. You can at any time (before the defect is cured) go back to the poorer vision if you so desire. The vision will not be poorer than it was before the glasses were worn, but will be more noticeable on account of having been accustomed to better vision. I have made a special study of the eyes and have been fitting glasses for fourteen years. Ask anyone that I have fitted if I promise as to ability, then give me a trial and be convinced. All work guaranteed.
