THE PONY BALL IN THE "LAND OF NOD" AT THE STEWARD SATURDAY

"The Land of Nod" with its massive and beautiful stage effects, and presented by an unusually large organization, will be the attraction at the Steward opera house, matinee and night, Saturday, January 15. This delightful extravaganza furnished entertainment of the kind which most people thoroughly enjoy. It is full of bright comedy which creates hearty laughter. Its music, of which there is an abundance, is of the spirited, popular kind, and it is all performed by the same popular people which have been identified with the extraordinary successes during the two years of its existence and its New York success. Among those may be mentioned Knox Wilson, Neil McNeil, Anna McNabb, Florence Sinnott and William Morgan. The famous "beauty chorus" remains the same in almost every individual instance. The scenery, costumes and other effects are on a scale of rare splendor, and the production as a whole is altogether praiseworthy.

FANCY MEAT WAGON

LOCAL MERCHANT SHOWS SKILL AND TASTE
Local Shops Turning out Products Which is Credit to the Maker

A Dutcher has just completed a delivery wagon for the Harris Meat Market, which for workmanship and design, is hard to beat, even in the larger cities, and is a credit to the builder. Mr. Peale, who has opened a paint shop in the Propeck building is doing the painting and it is a first class job. Mrs. Harris showed her good business sense by patronizing home industries. La Grande has mechanics enough to do all work of this description and by keeping money here all are given a chance to corral some of money so often sent to other towns for vehicles which can be had here for the same money and are of equal workmanship.
