G. E. ELECT OFFICERS

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR OF THE CENTRAL CHURCH SELECT NEW OFFICERS.

The following is the result of the election: Kathleen Thomas, president; Maude Simpson, Vice-President; Lela Simpson, secretary and treasurer; Della Kindred, organist. The Whiston and Longman meeting was discussed. Plans for helping in the meeting were laid. Every member departed with the feeling that the meeting of the evening had proven a decided success.

Rev. Ford A. Ellis, manager of the La Grande lecture course, received some large bill-posters announcing the College Singing Girls. This number of the course appears at the Mormon Tabernacle March 22.

About Rational Liver Treatment
A lad cuts his finger. We all know that almost immediately the process of repair begins, and with practically no attention at all the cut will heal; for nature brings to the damaged part just what is needed to restore normal conditions.
But tie a string very tightly just below the cut and what will be the result? Nature's course is interfered with, the supply of nerve force and bodily fluids to the afflicted parts is interrupted so that not only the cut will not heal, but, if the condition is allowed to continue, the finger will decay.
It is exactly thus with a disordered liver. Diets being reasonable so that the liver is not constantly overworked, and nature will take care of it—provided the current of her good work is not dammed up by some definite obstruction such as the string on the lad's finger. If nerves, which normally should have control of the liver, are pressed upon the vertebrae that are not in proper alignment or by some similar misjudgment; if the normal blood supply is interrupted with; or if the organ itself is crowded by the neighboring structures, it cannot be expected to recover or do its work properly.
But no drug or combination of drugs will remove the obstruction. Osteopathy does. Its speciality is finding and correcting just such misadjustments as those described; the whole long training of its practitioners is designed to fit them for the work.—Osteopathic Herald.

Frightful Fate Averted.
"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disberry, Kellie Minn., "without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Safe for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures, burns, scalds, old sores, skin eruptions. World's best for Piles. 50c at the Newlin Drug Company.
