ED PROPECK KILLS COUGER

Ed. Propeck a few days ago while making his daily tour of inspection of the Beaver Creek pipe line, killed a large mountain cougar which measured ten feet and ten inches from tip to tip. Ed says that he will keep his eyes open for another and if he is as successful in his next encounter as in his first experience he will soon be supporting one of the finest fur coats in the county.

Prof. Howe's Lecture.

Professor Howe's lecture delivered before the students of the University yesterday at assembly hour has already stirred up a great deal of favorable comment. The subject of the address was: "The Relation of Student Activity to College Work." Professor Howe dealt with the manner in which student activities is interfering with the college work of the students in the present day American colleges. He attributes the cause to an over-devotion of personal time to the affairs of the University to undue "hero worship."—Morning Register.
