MAKING NEW WATER RATES

The special committee composed of Councilman J. T. Williamson, F. L. Myers and E. E. Kammerer held a lengthy meeting last evening to consider the readjustment of the present water rates. There is no division in the committee regarding the fact that since the recent installation of the Beaver Creek gravity system that the rates should be adjusted, but the point at issue is to what extent the reductions can be made and the necessary revenues to pay the interest on the bonds and the sinking fund of $8,000 yearly. It

IMPORTANT DECISION

Circuit Judge Knowles has decided a decision today that is of small moment to the city. The custom has been heretofore for the city to pay the expenses of prosecutions in those cases from which appeal has been taken from the city and the defendants were successful. The case at issue was the case of the city vs. Ralph Atchison, an appeal from the City recorder's court. The is quite probable that the committee may visit near by cities to examine their rates and systems.

defendant applied to have the city pay the costs but the motion was denied.

A Slight Freight Wreck.

Two box cars left the track this morning and tried to climb the surrounding hills, this morning at Perry, resulting in the delay of the passenger train for several hours in this city. No great damage was done other than to the peace of the railroad officials' minds and tempers.

Corvallis Hen Show.

Cottage Grove, Jan. 14.—The opening of the Second Annual Poultry Show of Lane county occurred today with a large crowd of enthusiastic admirers. Choice birds from every section of the country are on exhibit and the attendance and interest that is being manifested makes this annual feature permanent.
