Cove Loses to Baker.
Cove, Jan. 16.—Special.—Last evening Cove went down in defeat to Baker City in a hotly contested debate here, the losers fighting stubbornly for every point. "Resolved that life imprisonment with restricted power of pardon should be substituted for capital punishment in Oregon." was the subject of the debate, the Cove affirmative team meeting the Baker negative squad. For Cove, Glen Roberts was the most convincing debater though the work of his colleagues, R. Lence and George Richards was of a high standard.

CARPENTERS WANT RAISE IN SALARY

La Grande hammer and saw artists have signed a new wage scale which calls for an increase in pay that is material. They base their claims on the increase living expense with no similar rise in the wage scale. The new order of things become effective on April 1 and is, of course, a foregone conclusion that those having need of carpenters will rush in all the work they can before that time. The formal resolutions signed by every carpenter in the city are as follows:

Notice.
La Grande, Oregon, January 13, 1910.—Inasmuch as at the present time the cost of living is much greater in proportion than the prevailing prices of labor, we the undersigned carpenters hereby resolve and agree that after the 1st day of April A. D. 1910 the uniform wage for carpenters shall be $4.00 per day of nine hours instead of $3.50 as it is at present; and We hereby further agree that we will not do any work at less wages than the above rate.

Signed—J. N. Kohl, W. A. Ludiker, Joseph Horstman, M. M. Marquis, Thos. H. Moore, F. B. Houston, T. S. Spiker, C. L. Spiker, J. Spiker, C. D. Goodmough, D. E. Cook, J. J. Clancy, C. G. Green, F. W. Pattison, G. O. Chapman, J. L. Slater, W. P. Noble, L. D. Sheets, W. C. Kelly, Heisner & Robinson, E. W. Kammerer, J. F. Steinbeck, Louis Wright.
