Javelin to Replace Hammer.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 5.—That the "big six" colleges in the Northwest athletic conference will abolish the hammer throw, substituting in its stead the javelin throw in future field meets, and that the two-mile run will be added to the list of track events is probable, according to delegates in attendance at today's meeting of the athletic representatives of the six schools.

Danger to spectators whenever the 16-pound missile is thrown through inability of the athlete to control the direction of his throw, is assigned as cause for the desire to abolish the event.

Canadian Skating Meet

Montreal, Feb. 5.—Several crack skaters from the United States are competing today in the Canadian out-door skating championships.

SHOW COMPANY HERE

Bailey and Austin entertain matinee crowd at Steward's this afternoon and tonight again appear before a La Grande audience with their fun and frolic.

At the Steward Opera House tonight our theatre goers will have an opportunity for the first time of seeing those cleverly heralded comedians, Bailey and Austin and their big supporting company of 75 people in what promises to be the most novel attraction of the season—The Top of the World, who are now returning from a most successful trip of the Pacific Coast.

This is the first time these clever boys have ever been seen in this city. They are not only accomplished singers, dancers, acrobats and athletes, but comedians who would be successful if they were not so versatile in a hundred ways. They alone have been responsible for the great financial and popular success of the Top of the World, more so than any of the two score novelties in which the piece abounds. They are coming here themselves and with few exceptions with the original company which ran for over a year at the Casino and Majestic theatres, New York, and the Studebaker theatre in Chicago. The most extravagant of praise and laudible criticism follows them in each city, and it is safe to say that here is an attraction that is going to please everyone. Bailey and Austin are both prominent Elks and 32d degree Masons as well as Shriners. This will be their last season in The Top of the World as a new musical piece by well known authors has been accepted for production next fall at a prominent Broadway theatre.
