BILLIE SUNDAY MAY BE IN LA GRANDE NEXT FALL

Geo. L. Cleyaver yesterday received a letter from Billie Sunday, the world famous evangelist, in response to a letter of inquiry relative to Evangelist Sunday holding a series of meetings here this fall. This in all probability cannot be accomplished this year. Rev. Sunday stated in his letter however that Evangelist Johnson, who will commence his meetings here March 27th, is now assisting Sunday in a big meeting at Youngstown, Ohio, and Rev. Sunday speaks strong words of praise relative to his ability.

a large tabernacle on the corner of Spring and 5th streets. This building will be 90 by 110 feet with a platform sufficiently large to hold 150 singers and the entire building will hold in excess of 2500. It will be floored, roofed, heated and well lighted. It will rush the carpenters to have the building in readiness, but if extremely severe weather does not prevent the work everything will be completed within the opening date. Johnson is not expected to arrive until early in March, but a wire received from him yesterday stated he desired to open on the 27th of this month.

PAVING PLANS RECIEVE ANOTHER BOOST LAST NIGHT

The preliminary steps for permanent street improvement and the declaration of specific improvement was ordered by the city council last evening. The following improvement districts were created, six in all: Elm St; Jefferson; Grandy to First; Fifth and Sixth streets.

The declaration to improve by macadam was in the following districts: On Grandy from First to Fourth; Jefferson from First to 3d; Second, from Spring to Grandy;

Seventh from Washington to N. Ave; Third from Main to Grandy; Fifth from Depot to N. and Sixth from Washington to N; Elm Street from Washington to Jefferson to be improved with Bitulithic pavement.

Engineer Darley submitted his plans and data for a complete sewerage system for the city. The same was placed on file and will be given careful consideration later. The system is complete in every detail covering every section of the city.

NEW FRENCH LINER READY

NOTRE DAME DE LOURDES THE NAME OF IT

Ships will carry both freight and passengers are plans.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—The new French line of steamers between this port and France and Portugal began operations today with the sailing of the Notre Dame de Lourdes, which will precede to Beodeaux and Lisbon by way of Fayal. Other steamships will follow on regular monthly schedules. Corsi Zumsteg & Co.,

of New York, are the general agents of the line, which is called the Blue Star Steamship Line.

The ships will carry both passengers and freight, and in addition to Lisbon and Bordeaux will stop at the Azores. At present there is no steamship service to the United States from Fayal and St. Michael's where some of the finest fruits and wines are to be had. The first vessel will load and discharge freight and passengers at Philadelphia and New York.

Exporters shipping by the Blue Star Line will have the benefit of reprisals offered by the French government on merchandise brought in to France on vessels built and owned in that country. Through bills of lading will be given out only to France and Portugal, but to all parts of Africa and South America.
