RIP COMING TO STEWARD

RIP VAN WINKLE DETRICK TO BE HERE FEB. 17.

Irving's masterpiece under first class staging is coming soon

An evening of enjoyment can be had by witnessing the performance of "Rip Van Winkle" at the Steward on Feb. 17. This grand old play has stood the test for years and is just as amusing and entertaining as it ever was. It is a play for everybody, young and old alike, while it is entertaining, it is also instructive and teaches a great moral lesson. It is the vehicle in which the world's greatest actor gained his fame, and has been praised and applauded by millions of people. Every quality of a good play is brought out in its production. Humor, pathos, surprising and thrilling incidents, and a happy ending. In producing "Rip Van Winkle" Manager Harper has secured Joseph Detrick for the part of Rip. Mr. Detrick has achieved much success in this character and he will be supported by thoroughly capable company. Special scenery and effects are carried and make the production complete in every detail.

LUSELAND CAR HELD

FLANGE THIN AND INSPECTORS HOLD CAR HERE

Wealthy Development Concern of St. Paul Held here for day

Luseland Development Company, officials and private party, traveling over the Northwest in the private car Luseland, are stranded in La Grande today during repairs to a wheel on the house on wheels. The car is one of the high class affairs, elegantly furnished and equipped. The flange on one wheel wore thin and the local inspector refused to allow it to be hooked on to No. 6, with which it came here from Portland. The car has been through Southern Oregon and is now on its way home. The wealth of the Luseland Company is represented in the men comprising the party. It is a fruit land developing concern. The car will be ready to send east tonight.

To Develop Oregon.

Eugene, Ore., Feb. 11.—Delegates from all the commercial and development organizations of the state met today at the University of Oregon for the second annual commonwealth Conference. Problems relating to the development of Oregon's forest and water resources, extension of irrigations projects, improvement on the conditions of country life and advances in educational methods will be considered. The conference will be continued tomorrow, which is the 51st anniversary of the admission of Oregon as a state, Feb. 12, 1859.
