BIG CROWD HEARS ILIFF

SOLDIER TALES HOLD CLOSE ATTENTION THROUGHOUT

Tells war stories at Presbyterian church that please well.

Dr. Iliff, the Ohio cavalry boy, who gave his lecture in the Presbyterian church last evening on the "Sunny Side of a Soldier's Life" was greeted with an exceptionally large audience for La Grande. He quite fighting when the war closed, consequently the 44 years since those stirring events have mellowed his feelings and his lecture, while patriotic, dealing with the mighty battles of the world, fought by the bravest men who ever met on any battlefield had no sting for the defeated believing they were wrong, but also believing they fought as the dictates of their conscience led them. Dr. Iliff made good every statement put forth prior to his coming. He is an orator and his descriptions were most interesting. Those present would have enjoyed another hour or so and those absent will never know what they missed.
