The Goulds are not so very poor after all. George Gould was recently forced to furnish a sworn statement of the family possessions. The estate is worth $120,000,000, the annual income on which for many years has been approximately $4,500,000, or about $250,000 for each of the six children of Jay Gould. The expense of her two French husbands has caused quite a shrinkage in Ann's share, but she is still worth something like $15,000,000, which ought to furnish comforts to her Prince de Sagan, even though it cannot procure him respectability.

One of the largest Fruit Growers' Unions in the country is under process of organization in the Rogue River valley. The points interested are Merlin, Grants Pass, Woodville, Gold Hill, Central Point, Eagle Point, Jacksonville, Hohenx, Ashland and Medford. This is a great fruit belt and the organization will be no small factor in the Southern portion of the state in not only marketing but also in spraying and infusing a unanimity of spirit.

Weston is beginning a campaign to secure the re-establishment of her state normal school. A committee of 18 has been appointed by the mayor to formulate a plan whereby the voters of the state may be led to see the righteousness of their cause.

Wouldn't it be the limit if Dr. Cook should turn up with a claim that he had been away discovering the South Pole? Wouldn't it be enough to give Copenhagen the shivers?—Baker Democrat.

Eugene Masons have purchased a site and will construct a five-story block.

Miners in a Gold Hill mine, on Rogue River, took out $420 in gold in two days.

RASULI DEAD

yielded and paid his ransom.

The last of Rasuli's victims was Sir Caid MasLean an English subject who was the Sultan's military adviser. The brigands released MasLean only when the British government promised to pay the demanded $100,000 ransom.

Receives New Lathe.

The La Grande Iron Works today received a new lathe, making a total of three in the establishment and means that work can be turned out with more dispatch than ever from now on.

Local Installs Officers.
J. W. McAllister was today installed as president of the La Grande local of the Farmer's Co-operative Union during a session of that order. Other officers are: W. D. Grandy, vice-pres.; Will Stein, sec-treas.; and O. P. Harrison, doorkeeper.

Mikado Rehearsal Tonight
Every member of the Mikado company is requested to be present tonight at the Elks hall at 8 o'clock. Those who for business or other reasons cannot come on time may come as soon as able during the evening. There will be by request a rehearsal tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon for the gentlemen.

Marriage License Issued.
County Clerk Ed Wright issued a marriage license today to Harry H. Leonard and Ea George, both of Elgin. The wedding will take place at Elgin.

Yard Employee Sick.
C. E. Happerset, a member of the local O. R. & N yard force has been ill at his home in East La Grande for the past three days.

FOURTEEN COYOTE SCALPS

Record-breaker for bounty calls in one day at Clerk's office.

Fourteen coyote skins were today brought in by various people from different parts of the county. This is a record breaker for one day. The bounty is $1.50 for each skin.

Attending State Meeting

C. E. Cochran, a member of the state central Republican committee, is in Portland to attend a meeting of that committee today.
