BANQUET SPEAKERS ARE PROVIDED FOR

ASIDE FROM SET SPEECHES ARE TO BE DISCUSSIONS.

Important topics handled from many speakers next Monday night.

Partial perfection of a list of the toasts for the Commercial Club banquet next Monday night has been prepared. In addition to those already procured there are several local people who will discuss various commercial matters from a standpoint of one closely related to that particular matter. For instance, the Merchant's Protective Association is to be discussed by one of its influential members, so on with various other subjects of general importance.

The List of Speakers.

The orators already on the slate for regular addresses are: District Attorney F. S. Ivanhoe, toastmaster; County Superintendent E. E. Bragg, F. S. Bramwell, A. Buckley, County Assessor T. A. Rinehart, William Miller, Governor Frank W. Benson, Hon. T. A. Wright, of Union; Prof. Bailey, of Elgin and Circuit Judge J. W. Knowles.

Anyone is welcome to attend, whether or not he is a member of the Commercial Club.

LODGE TEA PLANNED

REBEKAH LODGE ENTERTAINS
ALL OTHER AUXILIARIES

Afternoon tea arranged for local lodge women Thursday.

Crystal Rebekah Lodge No. 50 has issued invitations to all lady members of other lodges in the city to be present at a Fraternal Tea to be given Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5, Feb. 17th at the I. O. O. F. hall. As it was impossible to invite each lady separately the members of the different lodges are invited through one general invitation sent to each lodge in La Grande.

The purpose of the tea is to promote the fraternal spirit among the lodge members and to have a social time. It is purely social in nature and every lady that belongs to a lodge is invited to be present. It makes no difference to what lodge you belong or where your membership is held; you are invited.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND CHURCH

Excellent audiences are in attendance at the Central church night after night. Evangelist Whiston is proving to the La Grande people that he is a general. Sunday program is as follows: Bible School at 9:45. Preaching at 11:00 and 7:30. Christian Endeavor at 6:30. Junior Endeavor at 3. Whiston will speak in the morning on "Book of All Books," and in the evening "The Greatest Sermon Ever Preached." The evangelist is laying a good, firm foundation of education. Thus far there has been two additions. Both are young people. There has been but very little emphasis laid upon the invitation. Whiston believes that people should think what they do. These services are for you. There is a seat for everyone who loves and enjoys a good sermon.

Jeffries Fulfills Contract

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 12.—James J. Jeffries, who says he is most anxious to do just now is to get to training, will finish his theatrical tour here tomorrow night. It is believed that the mountains will be his immediate abode where he can lead an outdoor life and regain his wind. Jeff says he will have no trouble getting into shape for his bout with Johnson.

ONE OUT OF MANY

Irving's beautiful story of the Catskills, Rip Van Winkle, will be the attraction at the Steward, Feb. 17. Many plays are written each year, but about one of each hundred ever meet with more than a small degree of popularity. Some of them never live after the first performance. It is not always the dramatic production that pleases one person will please another, but the play that pleases all classes is the one that enjoys an everlasting success. It is safe to say that no other play has ever held the attention of the theatre going public as has Rip Van Winkle, and it still holds a place in The Dutch Village—Hudson's Pirate Crew—Rip's return and the happy denouement are all pleasing factors.

Joseph Detrick, who plays the part of Rip is particularly suited to the character and never fails to please his audiences to the utmost. The balance of the characters are in capable hands, and the costumes are historically correct.

Texas Bankers Meet

Waco, Tex., Feb. 12.—The annual convention of the Fourth District Texas Bankers began here today. A central bank will be one of the chief topics discussed.

storage rooms was placed. Additional storage rooms are to be placed, and a new portion to the building erected to house the machinery now ready for shipment from Portland. The plant is to be modern in every way.

The deep water well is yet to be dug as a pure water supply source.

To Study Charities

READY FOR RUN.

Meacham Lumber Company will not do much until spring.

The Meacham Lumber Company has a force of men logging and decking. The snow is three feet deep, which in a great measure curtails work and the saw mill will not resume its run until the winter weather breaks away. The outlook for a good spring and summer run has never been better.

Vote On Commission System.
