LEAVES FAMILY DESTITUTE
La Grande shoe cobbler takes sudden departure, family suffers.

The family of Samuel Nelson, living in the Bartness house on Adams Ave., is said to be in a destitute condition following the sudden disappearance of the husband and father, who is a cobbler having worked in a local shoe store for some time. He dropped out of town about two weeks ago and the family has been left to shift for itself.

Neighbors have discovered the conditions and have come to the rescue with food. The lady is in critical health and unless the reports from the home of suffering are exaggerated, the place needs attention from local benevolent societies and organizations.

TWENTY PROFESS CONVERSION.
Revivals close at Island City with splendid results.

The revival meeting closed at Island City last night. The meetings have been a success from the very first. The opening service was held three weeks ago last Sunday with a very small attendance but an increasing interest was manifested by the constantly increasing attendance taxing the church's capacity. Forty-five bowed at the altar professing conversion. Last evening two adults besides several children went forward.

A strong Epworth League was organized with a membership of 21, with Miss Minnie Holman president. Evangelist Batchelder's subject last evening was "crises". His vivid word painting of the famous Burlington Mt. Pleasant baseball tie game was listened to with breathless interest, from which many a pointed lesson was drawn. An offering of $50.29 was tendered Rev. Batchelor. Considering that this was a free will offering and that Island City is not a large place, it shows the generous spirit of that community.

Walla Walla, Wash, Feb. 11.—To the editor of the Observer—I will pen you a few lines in regard to the Western Tri-state baseball league which I am at present organizing and which I can say for certain will be organized immediately under protection of the National Association of Professional Baseball, regardless of Boise, Nampa, Baker City and of La Grande. I have just 11 applications and only six clubs will be admitted, so I can promise you the league will be organized and in Class C.

Now in regard to La Grande, I was very glad to see La Grande a member of said league, merely because I have deep respect for the good, loyal fans of that city, and under the present condition and in such a league these same loyal fans and the public would be assured good baseball, which they are undoubtedly entitled to. Now as I have a recent article clipped from a La Grande paper stating that Boise, Nampa, Baker City and La Grande did not approve of the Jack O'Brien plan to enter the Western Tri-state League. Now allow me to truthfully state that O'Brien himself would not be so foolish as to organize such a league to travel from Walla Walla to Boise and would never have believed such simply because my past 17 years experience has taught me better, and furthermore, I desire to state to the public through your paper that I merely wanted La Grande to have a franchise in said league in due respect for the fans and the public and not for the one endeavoring to promote such a club in your city. I, myself, had the personal invitation to promote the La Grande end of it from a baseball standpoint and I dare say that I do not know of two merchants or business men in La Grande who would assist the one now endeavoring to promote baseball in La Grande to the extent of five cents financially. Let the people there stand for such talk and await their time.

I am thankful to know I can truthfully state that in regard to baseball I did all I promised for La Grande in every way and hope they are fortunate enough to see good baseball this season.

I will be back in La Grande shortly and will talk the matter over with a few prominent business men in a business way and to show all how positive I am of my new league. I have 38 players to date and in event La Grande does not be a member of a league outside of amateur baseball. I promise faithfully to transfer a couple of game sor a couple of series to La Grande even if we have to play on the open lots providing we are refused the privileges of the baseball park.

Now I am writing this epistle for publication and trust you will publish the same for me in your valuable paper.

Yours Sincerely,
JACK D. O'BRIEN.

A Story of Ancient Rome.

"The Christian Martyrs" (Selig) A strongly dramatic picture dealing with the events in Roman times, when it was almost a death warrant to be known as Christians. The story is based upon the love of a noble Roman citizen, for a Christian slave girl and the jealousy of a Roman woman, an empress, who has the girl given to the lions. The realistic scenery in the arena, the felicity with which it has been carried out, and the indefinite something which cannot be described, but can be felt, is sufficient to cause one to stop and consider what it might have meant to be a Christian in those days. There is always something new and interesting at the star. Change tomorrow.

Manager Gardiner is elated over the fact that this week he presents the Musical Wilson's, something entirely different. The Boise Statesman says that this act is the best musical act ever presented in Boise and their costumes are the richest ever presented on the Scenic stage. The Romig Twins will also be here this week and in all this is by far the strongest program presented by the Scenic in many weeks.
