SOCIETY

The Philathea Class of the Presbyterian Sunday School entertained the Baracca Class last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith on Penn. Ave. About 20 guests were present and a delightful time was spent. The young ladies served a delicious luncheon to their guests.

Next Tuesday evening the B. P. O. E. Lodge No. 433 will give their 13th annual ball in the auditorium of their home. This party always marks one of the largest social affairs of the season and is looked forward to from year to year by the Elks and their families and sweethearts. A good many out of town Elks are expected to attend this year, despite the fact that the anniversary of Washington's birthday fell during Lent, a large crowd will be in attendance. The music for the affair will be the best heard in this city this winter as it will comprise some of the best local talent and some musical talent from adjoining cities, consisting of 12 pieces all told.

Clara and Elmer Hortsman entertained a few of their friends at a Valentine party last evening. Those present were Misses Fay Milligan, Ruth Oliver, Emma Lottes, Ruth Taylor, Estey and Neva Snider and Messrs Lester and Clifford Little. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

FOR SALE—Two lots with modern six room house, good lawn and shade trees. Bargain if taken at once. Inquire at O. H. Hagen's barber shop on Depot Street 2-19-16

Has new Theory.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 19—Minne Deems of Alameda Cal., has written the police here that she believed the woman murdered at Mount Tamalpais was Anna Nelson of Des Moines. The police is investigating.

Keep Officials posted.

The Observer neglected to mention yesterday that information coming to the attention of local merchants regarding the check forger working in Pendleton and likely headed for La Grande, had come to the police here and if he is caught here tonight—he generally works on Saturday night—to notify the city police department.

Revival Continues

A large audience heard Whiston last night on "Popular Amusements" and great interest was manifested. Two men were baptized at the close. Tonight Whiston will speak on "Up and Down." This is another striking message. Longman will sing and there will be other special music. Sunday will be a great day. Bible School at 9:45. Whiston on "The Old Love" at 11 and on "A Startling Question" at 7:30. As the meetings are drawing toward a close Whiston will be at his best. Don't miss one.
