Famous Woman Critic

Chicago has a woman dramatic critic who is one of the best known theatrical writers on the American press. This woman, Miss Amy Leslie, has for a number of years been the critic on the Chicago Daily News and the theatre goers of that city rely strongly upon her criticisms of a new play before purchasing their seats.

In speaking of The House of the Thousand Candles, the attraction at the Steward on Saturday, Feb. 26, Miss Leslie says: "The audience at the Garrick liked the play, and there will be many, many audiences that will go wild over it."

"The House of the Thousand Candles is a dramatization of Meredith Nicholson's famous novel of the same title, and was originally produced at the Daly theatre in New York City, where it ran four weeks and was then transferred to the Hackett theatre where it ran for the balance of the season.

BALL HUGE SUCCESS

Out of Town Guests, Rich Gowns, and Good Music Spells Success

Last evening about 65 couples enjoyed the hospitality of La Grande B. P. O. Elks, No. No. 432 at their 11th annual ball and banquet, which are always celebrated on Washington's birthday. The gowns worn by the ladies present were rich and handsome and made the dancing floor a beautiful spectacle. Both the auditorium and the banquet hall were beautifully and tastefully decorated with the lodge colors, purple and white. The banquet was served shortly after midnight in the banquet hall with the following menu:
