SOCIETY

The Decem Club will be entertained next Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Dunn at their home on Main Ave.

Last evening at their lodge rooms the Royal Neighbors entertained a few invited friends at a banquet and a general social evening. The banquet table was decorated in Washington birthday style and the cards were small hatchets, painted with cherries. Each member of the order was given the privilege of inviting one guest and those invited, which included a number of the Woodmen considered themselves very lucky to be among the chosen few. After the banquet the guests listened to a carefully prepared program, speeches and singing joined in by everyone present. At a late hour the party broke up, each going to their respective homes and voting the ladies of the Royal Neighbors as delightful entertainers.

Forgetting all feeling of disappointment at defeat of the La Grande high school last evening, the Juniors and Seniors of the high school gave an informal reception at the high school in honor of the visiting team. Refreshments of a light order were served and school songs and a general good time were other features. The event was highly appreciated by the Baker City delegation. The same spirit of openhearted hospitality was evident also at the debate where the visiting debaters were given ovations when they appeared to deliver their orations.

Elgin, Feb. 25.—(Special)—On Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, at Elgin, Mrs. Dan Sommer entertained the young ladies of the high school and a few of their friends at a Washington birthday party. The house was tastefully decorated in flags and red, white and blue edrapery to carry out the patriotic scheme, and a delicious luncheon was served. The first honors of the evening were won by Scott Harris and Lillian Morris while the second prizes were awarded to Mr. Larson and Miss Green. The party broke up at a late hour, all of the guests voting Mrs. Sommer a charming hostess.

Elgin, Feb. 25.—(Special)—Mrs. Henry Hugg and Mrs. Townley of Elgin entertained a number of ladies at the home of Mrs. Townley at a George Washington party. The house was beautifully decorated in the national colors, which hung on the wall with all the pictures of the ex-presidents without their names attached, which proved to be a guessing contest for the afternoon's amusement. Each lady was given a paper and a pencil and told to write the names of the presidents as they were numbered, also to draw a picture of George Washington and write his biography. Mrs. Bater proved herself the most accurate in the contest and was awarded the prize, a beautiful hand painted china candlestick. A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon's pleasure.

Park Dale, Feb. 25.—(Special)—The Park Dale Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. A. L. Orr at her home in South La Grande. The business part of the meeting was held followed by a short program as follows: Reading "Country Life" by Mrs. Bonsell that was greatly appreciated. Mrs. A. L. Orr then recited by request her poem "Trips to the Supings" which showed marked ability. At the next meeting each member is requested to bring a receipt of how to cook some staple food in the healthiest manner. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. D. C. Procter in Fruitdale. The afternoon session closed with games and music. The hostess served a delicious two course luncheon at the close of a very pleasant afternoon.
