Resolution of condolence, 5c a line.

The consensus of opinion among the leaders of the Republican party of Union county is to assist in a measure the objects of the state assembly and see how it works, but while they may not seriously object to the state assembly plan they see no necessity of a county assembly. The same reasoning that would suggest a state assembly does not apply to the county assembly for the reason that every voter in the county will have ample opportunity to inform himself regarding the personality and qualifications of the county candidates. The state assembly could adopt a party platform that would be sufficiently broad to cover the general national and state issues, which would in a great measure cover the county issues as far as any general platform could be expected to do. This would give the party a general organization to direct and look after the campaign.

The death of Senator Tom Platt of New York removes one of the big leaders of political movements. For the past few years he did not have the control of things as he once did. Whether you admire his position, nevertheless a man who had such absolute power over such a state as New York and over the country generally has ability that few possess. Like all mortal men he had to bow to the inevitable when the messenger of death called.

According to the Walla Walla Bulletin, W. P. Reser, a large farmer and horse breeder of that country, has lost more than a hundred horses during the past few months from perniculous anemia and has sixty head now afflicted with it. Dr. S. B. Nelson, State Veterinarian, has applied to the government authorities for aid in stamping out this dread malady, a remedy for which has not yet been discovered. The Reser horses are the only ones afflicted with as far as the state authorities know.

City election next Monday. So far very little interest has been manifested caused no doubt by the lack of opposition for most of the places. There are four candidates for marshal but even for this position but little interest is manifested. The latter portion of the week, conditions may change.

Along with the butercups will come the spring crop of candidates, especially for state and district offices. It is a little early for county speculation, however, it might be surprising to know how many lightning rods are out if they could only be spotted.

Wallowa Sheep Not Suffering

The range in Innaha looks good with the snow all off except a little on the north hill sides, and the grass tall and green, and the stumps of the brush who came out the other end of the week on his way to the district of Walla Walla.

Mr. Staumbaugh's place is three miles below the bridge. He wintered 3000 sheep without hay and says they come through in fine shape, with only a loss of 19 ewes and 58 lambs or about the average per cent, and they principally from coyotes.

The reports of losses of cattle have been exaggerated. The best posted men down the river are placing the average loss at not over ten per cent, principally all from sliding. Of course some owners have lost a good deal more, while many have lost less.—Wallowa News-Record.

FALLS FROM ROOF

L. Couch suffers painful injury while shoveling snow from barn

L. Couch, the well known real estate man, met with a painful accident Sunday evening while shoveling snow from the roof of his barn in the south part of town, which resulted in the breaking of his right leg near the ankle.

Mr. Couch was cleaning the snow from his buggy shed fearing the roof would collapse from the weight of snow. After completing his task he attempted to climb down, slipped and fell, striking his right ankle on the shovel he had been using.

He is resting well and is able to sit up, but is very weak from the suffering it has caused him.—Wallowa Sun.

Pythian Temple Was Organized

Last Thursday night there was organized in this city a lady's auxiliary of the Knights of Pythias lodge known as Hiawatha Temple No. 47. It was instituted by Grand Chief, Mrs. Inez R. Chase and has 46 charter members.—Wallowa Sun.

M. W. A. Well Attended.

One of the largest attendances in some time was present at a regular meeting of the M. W. A. last night. An interesting ceremony was carried out and a general good time had by all present.

JOHNSON IS A LIVE WIRE

tails of the meetings daily. These reports will contain the main portions and the best parts of the sermons of Mr. Johnson. Watch our columns.

It ought to be said that already people from the country are arriving in town to be present at the meetings in the spacious tabernacle will doubtless be crowded to the limit of its vast capacity.

A Creche.

Did you ever see a creche? There is one at the Baptist church during the meetings. It is a place where babies and children are kept and cared for while their mothers (and fathers and uncles and aunts) are at church. Let no one stay away from the tabernacle because of domestic cares and difficulties such as children (and dogs); but the tabernacle is like heaven in one respect at least, the dogs are on the outside. Leave the favorite dogs at home and take the favorite children to the creche at the Baptist church; no charge for attention.

Advice

When you arrive, unless you belong to the choir, place yourself in the hands of an usher. He knows where the best seats are. He must be systematic in order to assist the public as it crowds the space.

If you find something some one has dropped, give it to one of the ushers.

Let the choir not make a chronic string-town of itself every evening, but be here promptly and in place, eyes on Director Gray and hearts on God.

Do You Need Glasses?

I will be here for only ten days. I have brought my optical equipment over from Pendleton and will be located here for ten days at Ferguson's old stand. I have added to my equipment since leaving here and now have a complete lens grinding outfit and now I grind my own glasses thus insuring your eyes with lenses ground for your own particular case. Bring me your broken lenses and I can duplicate them in less than 15 or 20 minutes.

I will be pleased to meet all my old customers as well as new ones.

Remember, my glasses fit. Ask any one.
