PRAISE FOR STAR

ABOUT FORTY RETURN ON SPECIAL TRAIN AT 3 A. M.

Songs of praise for Schumann-Heink are sung lustily today.

Returning at 3 o'clock this morning, tired out but well pleased with the trip, about forty local musical devotees are today tauding the concert given by Schumann-Heink at Baker City last night. The train was run as announced and there was nothing to mar the trip. Some of those who went have heard Schumann-Heink before, but as so often been said of her, is repeated today, and that is that every appearance of the noted singer in the West is just a little better than the preceding one. Others who had not listened to her marvelous gifts before, were simply carried away with the magnificence of the recital. Her program follows:

- Recitation and aria "Vitellia" from the opera Titus.....Mozart
- (a) Aria from the opera "Sampson" and "Dellah"..... Saint-Saens
- (b) Waltraute scene from "Götterdämmerung"..... R. Wagner
- (c) "Ah mon fils" from the opera "Le Prophète".....Meyerbeer
- (d) Die Allmacht.....Franz Schubert
- (e) Frühlingsfahrt.....Robt. Schumann
- (f) Von ewiger Liebe.....Joh. Brahms
- (g) Allerseelen.....Richard Strauss
- (h) Liebesfeier.....Felix Weingartner
- (a) The Rosary.....Ethelbert Nevin
- (b) Oh, Let Night Speak of me.....G. W. Chadwick
- (c) Danza.....G. W. Chadwick
- (d) His Lullaby.....C. J. Bond
- (e) Love in a Cottage.....Rudolph Ganz

King's Wedding Anniversary
London, March 10—Forty-seven years ago today the bells of the churches of England were ringing merrily to celebrate the marriage of the Prince of Wales and Princess Alexander of Schleswig-Holstein, daughter of Prince Christian, who, not over a year later became King of Denmark. Today the King and Queen are celebrating the anniversary of the happy event. As usual on March 10 of every year, congratulation and felicitations are pouring in on the royal pair from all monarchs and princes of Europe.

Advance Showing of Spring Styles

Opening Week at N.K. West

Our suit department will be a place of enchantment for women this week.

We ordered the very first lot of Spring models from the Wooltex makers, a bit of enterprise characteristic of this store.

There will be one drawback to your full enjoyment of this wonderful panorama of styles—the difficulty of choosing the most charming model when all are so beautiful.

Come and see them and you will admit that we are not over enthusiastic about this marvelous display.

Spring Hats are in Full Bloom

It will soon be Easter and you had best select that new hat now while we have such an array of the newest styles in tailored and patterned hats

Spring Gloves to Match Suits

A complete line of new kid and silk gloves have just arrived and will be found in colors to blend with your choice in a suit. Black, Brown, Grey, Tan and Dark Red.

WAISTS

Waists of all the desirable new styles, including lingerie, linen, tailored in white and colors, taffeta, messalines, and India Satin.

PETTICOATS

The largest shipment Heatherbloom, Moire and sateen petticoats we ever received. A wonderful valued petticoat at $1.00. You should see it.

1910 WASH GOODS

This season the wash goods are prettier in pattern and weave than ever before and we assure you that you can find something to please the most fastidious taste here.

NEW SILKS AND TRIMMINGS

Cheneys Shower Proof, Fonlards, India Satins, fancy waist patterns, domestic and imported Pongee and in fact everything that is new and stylish in silks and trimmings.

GREAT HONOR TO TEDDY.

Rare show of esteem to be made by the city of London. London, March 10.—The highest civic honors within the power of London to bestow will be conferred upon Col. Roosevelt on his forthcoming visit to this city. The common council has already decided to present the former president with the "Freedom of the City." Such an honor is rarely conferred. Ex-president Grant was one of the few men so honored.

FARM TRAIN SCHEDULE

WILL BE IN LA GRANDE FRIDAY MARCH 25.

Will go to Baker and Wallowa county before reaching here.

Definite plans and announcement for the coming of the first demonstration train to Union county, were received this morning by O. R. & N. Agent J. H. Keeney.
