"The Mitchell" cars are not built merely to run. The least, not the most an automobile can do is to run. We expect more than this, as do Mitchell owners. Mitchell cars must run with minimum attention, minimum fuel, tire and repair cost and a minimum of nursing.

Mitchell cars are rendering service the world over—from pounding over stage lines across the Nevada deserts and the California mountains to splashing along the boulevards of a thousand cities. Come and see us and let us demonstrate its good qualities to you.

STORY IS INTERESTING
At the Steward on Wednesday the 16th of March F. Lawrence Walker is present Charles B. Hanford in the farcial comedy "The American" Lord. The Principal personage is John Breuster, a hotel man and goodfellow. Breuster in an out-and-out American So well he liked by his fellow men that he is about to be sent to congress but while his friends are yelling at the mention of his name she is informed of that he is a descendant of Lord Breuster and heir to the title and estates of that personage. The entire thing is considered as a joke. "What! Give up Congress for a job like that?" Not much of it is his opinion of the matter. But he takes the offered wealth and he goes to England and the fun he has is best told by a visitation of the performance when comes to the Steward next week.
