Daniel in the lion's den passed before us; and from this narrative we learned that no man ever attempted to stand for God without some low-down, beetle-browed devil incarnate arose to hinder and defeat. But God always goes before His children and no lion can touch a man on the path of duty. No smell of fire can be found on a loyal soul. The 300 tried men of Gideon seemed to call men of La Grande to the conflict and evident victory near at hand.

The Wall Flower.

Mr. Johnson paid his respects to recently displayed advertisement of the dancing master in which this distinguished friend of the devil and enemy of righteousness warned the young people of this city against becoming wall flowers because they were not accomplished dancers. He then quoted, "I had rather be a wall flower than dance on the coals of hell."

Then followed statistics to show that from 75 to 95 per cent of the prostitutes of this country pass the ball room down to the shame and disgrace and hell of the fallen. Every five minutes some precious girl is started on a hellward course through the ball room from the homes of this country.

The story of Benlah slaying the lion presented the central truth of the evening. The evangelist was dramatic and powerful in this presentation. The lion is still at large and committing his depredations against boys and girls. He appears as the lion of covetousness—teh lion of the skating rink—the lion of the dime show—the lion of Sabbath desecration—the lion of the Sunday theatre. Let the Christian go to these and he will unreach more sermons in one such than all the preachers of this city can preach in a year. Then there is the lion of the near beer joints, and this is nearer hell than any device of the devil. Your local situation demands a baptism of backbone for fathers whose sons are imperiled. Then comes the lion of adultery, malice and gambling.

These must be slain. Men, will you help? You can't afford to beat a retreat. It would mean the compromise of your family and the ruin of your loved ones.

Then followed a most thrilling scene. The evangelist said, "Now all who will stand up for Jesus and will pledge themselves to help slay the lion of sin, come while we sing, 'Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus.' Possibly 500 to 600 people came. The feeling was intense. The effect was electrifying. Thus a new high water mark was recorded in the campaign for souls.

Characteristic Utterances

Many incisive utterances were made that their godless dead be preached into heaven when we know that they are in hell with horns. "I shudder to go to the grave of the wicked. Too late! Too late!" While while "Precious in the sight of the Lord in the death of the saints." "If nine-tenths of the men of this city were to run their business as they do their religion, they would be bankrupt in 90 days." "Do you want to be damned because you have not the moral courage to stand for the right?"

Successful Personal Worker.

To succeed as a worker for Jesus it is necessary to be saved yourself to have true courage; to have faith in God's ability that other men might know that God will show his hand and reveal his power in La Grande! People that know God shall do exploits. No weapon formed against Him shall prosper. Man, show to your wife that she has a man for her husband, not merely a pair of overalls.

The old story of David and Goliath was modernized. A trick of a howling devil was exposed and the courage of a real and true man charmed the audience. The moral was taught that, going out to meet the enemy in human strength, we fall, but, in God's strength, all hell can't prevail against us.

TEAM TO BAKER CITY

Stout and three debaters go to mining town to combat tonight. Principal J. D. Stout and Debaters Joe Ingle, Willie Hamilton and Arlo Meyers left on the morning train for Baker City where the debating team meets the affirmative team from Baker City tonight, to decide the championship between this city and Baker City. The honors are even to begin with and a tie is impossible tonight. A doctor, a minister and a furniture dealer, all of Pendleton, are to be the judges at the contest.

Deny Bank Combine

New York, March 18.—Officers of the Standard Oil and Morgan interests today refused to affirm or deny a report that the two gigantic interests have combined to wrest the banking business of Central and of South America away from England and Germany. For some time it has been rumored that such a step was being considered and now it is common gossip that the American interests purpose to establish a chain of banks in the Southern republics. Such a movement would open up a tremendous banking business.
