Wireless Students Meet.

Philadelphia, April 9.—Responding to an invitation extended by the wireless club of the University of Pennsylvania, students from scores of colleges and universities east of the Mississippi are participating today in a convention for the purpose of organizing an intercollegiate wireless telegraph association.

That wireless telegraph is attracting the attention of many inventive college students is self-evident, and that it will lead to closer relations between various universities is certain. Most of the large universities and colleges now have wireless stations, and with many of these the University of Pennsylvania Wireless Club is in communication daily.

Langford Barry Fight.

Los Angeles, April 9.—"Nothing to it" is the consensus of the competent on today's fight at Vernon between Sam Langford the colored boxer, and Jim Barry the Chicago Heavy weight. While the mill is scheduled to last 25 rounds and it is general opinion that the negro will take Barry's measure in much less time. This fight will be the ninth between Barry and Langford.

To Play in Canada.

New York, April 9.—Mr. Forbes-Robertson will end his New York season tonight and proceed directly to Montreal, where he will give a charity benefit performance Monday night under the patronage of Earl Gray, Governor General of Canada.

To Consecrate Bishop

Mobile, April 9.—Bishop J. W. Shaw of this city will be consecrated bishop conductor of the Catholic diocese of San Antonio, Texas, and is to leave for his new home next week.

Belated St. Patrick's Day.

Philadelphia, April 9.—A St. Patrick's memorial mass, postponed from March 17 because of the strike situation, was held today at the cathedral. The presentation of a gold chalice to Archbishop Ryan took place after the mass.

Wickersham to Speak.

Chicago, April 9.—Attorney-General Wickersham, Gov. Eberhard of Minnesota and Judge Emory Spear, the Georgia orator, will be the chief speakers at the Appomattox day dinner in Chicago this evening. Mr. Wickersham comes here with the express approval of President Taft and has taken as the subject of his address, "The Administration."

Taft at Leagne Banquet

Washington, April 9.—President Taft will occupy the seat of honor at the annual banquet tonight of the League of Republican State Clubs. Prominent republicans from all over the nation will be gathered about the banquet board at the Arlington, and the speakers, besides the president will include Senator Lodge, Rep. William B. McKinley and Rep. J. Hampton Moore.

Memorial on Mount of Olives.

Jerusalem, April 9.—Prince Eitel Frederick, second son of Emperor William of Germany today formally opened the Empress Augusta Memorial, a German hospital and charitable institution, on the Mount of Olives. The inaugural was marked by imposing ceremonies in which the Prince and his wife participated.

Giants Meet Yale.

New York, April 9.—New York fans will witness the first big baseball game of the season at the Polo Grounds this afternoon, when the National League Giants, fresh from the Southern trip, will meet the Yale nine. Following the custom of many years the Giants will open the season on their home lot by engaging in deadly combat with the amateurs of New Haven. Once only have the Ellis succeeded in "showing up" the professionals. That was when Yale's pitcher was "Dutch" Carter. The Giants just couldn't find him and their proud banner was trailed in the dust by the floating "rah rah" boys.

Purdue Baseball.

Lafayette, Ind., April 9.—Purdue begins the baseball season today on the home diamond with the Earlham nine as its opponent. The schedule includes the best nines of the Central west among them Wisconsin, North western, Illinois, Indiana and Chicago.

California Tennis.

San Francisco, April 9.—Tennis experts of Stanford and the University of California met today in tournament for the intercollegiate championship of California.

Indians Play Lacrosse.

Carlisle, April 9.—Redskin lacrosse players of Carlisle open their season today with Lehigh. The schedule includes six games, ending with the Navy at Annapolis on May 14.
