LOCAL NEWS

Bill Reynolds of Cove is among the business visitors in town today. W. J. Whiting of Union and Cove is in the city today on business. W. J. Church spent Sunday in Baker City, returning this morning. Mrs. Elmer Phelps passed through La Grande today enroute from Walla Walla to her home near Cove. A. V. Andrews, Wood Berry and Frank Wilhelm spent Sunday at Hot Lake. Miss Bonnie Severs of Cove is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. D. Stout of this city. Attorney L. J. Davis of Union is a county seat visitor today on legal business. Mrs. N. Mellor returned yesterday from Portland where she has been a visit for some time past. Mrs. F. E. Moore, formerly of this city left on this morning's train for her home in Enterprise. R. N. Stanfield of the new town of Stanfield in Umatilla county, was Sunday visitor. H. McKinnis and family of Modesto, Cal., were registered at the Foley Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oliver, now of California but formerly residents of La Grande, left today for the East where they will visit friends. Mrs. James Christian who has been visiting friends at Summerville returns to her home in Eastman, Wash., this evening. Rev. Martin pastor of the Methodist church at Summerville is in the city today on his way to attend the district meeting of the ministers at Payette. The Summerville church has taken a wonderful leap forward as a result of the recent meetings, which resulted in 152 conversions, of which number 112 joined their church. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dickey leave in the morning for California where they expect to make their future home. They will visit friends and relatives at several places on their way.

Ray Gibson of Cove returned from Portland today. Sunday was a red letter day for the order of the Knights of Columbus in Baker City. A class of 20 was initiated into the order, among them being Father Aalds and Frank O. Boyles of this city. Among those in attendance from La Grande in addition to the candidates were J. H. Peare, F. L. Meyers, Mr. Casey, Geo. O'Neill, Conductor Fergus, Fireman Logue and J. D. Casey of Hilgard. Assistant Superintendent Ladd, in charge of the mechanical department of the O. R. & N., and Assistant Superintendent Lonnergan, in charge of the maintenance of ways, were in the city yesterday and today went on to Baker City. A quiet wedding occurred at the home of H. C. Cotner last evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Gertrude Carpenter was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Denning. Rev. Ford A. Ellis of the Central Church was the officiating minister. These two young people are of La Grande and will make their home here. Mr. Denning is in the employ of the city. Their many friends wish them a happy and contented life.

Notice to the Public

You can save all the Middleman's large profits by purchasing your Mission Furniture direct from our Factory at factory prices.

We are manufacturing Solid Oak Mission Furniture and selling it direct to the people in "Sections," saving you from 50 to 100 per cent.

You can buy our furniture in "Sections," set it up and finish it yourself, and it will actually cost you less than the dealer would have to pay for it.

You do not have to pay the factory profit, then the jobbers profit and then the retailer's profit. You only have to pay for the profit—ours. We absolutely guarantee every piece of furniture we sell to please you or your money will be returned at once.

Our furniture is not the common cheap kind, but every piece is high grade solid oak, genuine mission and honestly made.

Anyone can set up and finish our "Sectional" furniture. We have made it simple for you. It requires not over 30 minutes to assemble and complete any of our designs. No tools are required.

We furnish choice of five colors of stain, glue, wax, and in fact everything to make the piece complete in every detail.

Think this idea over. It's a good one. You will like it.

We know that after you have received your first order from us that you will be a permanent customer of ours and you will re-order and tell your friends about us. Send card for catalogue—it tells the whole story.
