FRIENDS DO KINDLY ACT

CASTLE FIELD PLOWED AND HARROWED BY FRIENDS.

All winter, farmer is unable to attend to his farm work.

Mr. I. W. Castle, who lives one mile east of La Grande and who has been under the care of a physician all winter, was very agreeably surprised Friday morning to see some of his neighbors drive in with teams, plows and harrows, and the long absence only ended after 17 men and teams had entered the field. Mr. Castle demanded of them the cause of so unceremonious an act. He was informed that it was only a peaceable mission and they proceeded to plow and harrow up his fields ready for the seeders.

When evening came his field was entirely plowed—about 20 acres—and almost all harrowed. A set of men that would be guilty of such an act is fit only to be classed among the true nobility of the land. The guilty ones are:

J. H. McEvers, M. S. Carroll, M. Michaelson, A. B. Davis, C. M. Riddle, C. C. Coolidge and W. J. Black of May Park; J. C. Rice, Ted Stillwell, Francis Carbine, Henry Holl, Phil, Thompson, J. E. Clark and Jno. Chandler of Fruitdale; F. B. Houston, A. B. Davis and T. H. Williamson of Cove Avenue.

The good sisters were also in evidence to assist in preparing a very excellent dinner. Those present are Mesdames A. P. Davis, S. B. Williamson, C. D. Huffman, John Chandler, Geo. Koltz, James Guttenridge and Mrs. Castle desire to extend to the intruders their sincerest thanks. Their act of kindness will never be forgotten.

SHOW FOOLS PEOPLE

The wise ones picked the "Belle of Japan" as a finale and stayed away from the performance at the Steward. A few went, and if you don't believe the show fooled the people, ask those who went. The company was highly satisfactory to the few who witnessed it and the wisecracks are admitting today that they missed it once. Some say this is a joke.

THURSDAY IS MEETING DAY

PROMOTERS COULD NOT REACH LA GRANDE TODAY.

Impossible to hold organization meeting until later date.

Much in keeping with general opinion in baseball circles, the meeting called for today in this city failed to materialize and was postponed until Thursday. It was not thought at the time, when Tuesday was temporarily set, that all the promoters could get here, and late last evening Grant Lincoln received word to the effect that all could not come today. This does not mean that any or all are giving up the idea, but it simply means that the men could come better prepared to outline the year's work for the four-club league.

Raymond, the Texas leaguer, who is backing the Pendleton club, has been making a hit in his new town, and the fans are going to back him to the last ditch, provided he produces good ball.
