SOCIETY

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Richardson. A full attendance is desired. The meeting is called for 2:30.

De Lykely Tretten, a high school girls' club, last night gave a reception at the high school in honor of the visiting Pendleton debating team. Light refreshments were served and a brief period spent in cementing a friendship between the two schools.

Popular as are known the social events so frequently held by the Order of the Eastern Star, last night certainly eclipsed anything in the entertainment line ever attempted. There were 150 present and to note the general interest in the order, which now numbers 108 members, six new applications were presented last evening. Following the business session a mock initiation was put on by a well drilled team of the ladies in the order of Female Masonry. It was simply too funny to attempt a description. Every Mason in the house laughed so heartily that their sides will be sore for a fortnight. Mrs. Susan B. Anthony was one of the candidates. It required fifty an hour after the initiatory ceremony before the vast crowd could be ushered into the banquet hall where the three long tables were served. It was after midnight before the lights were ordered out and one and all were delighted with the evening.
