

The President's Special.
The story of the President's Special that is running at the Isis this change, is simple and direct, yet exceedingly dramatic. The day operator at Willowby Station comes on duty and find Collins, the night man, quite sick. Collins leaves for home, promising to be at work again in the evening. This he fails to do and the day operator is forced to stick at his post for 48 hours. His wife calls at midnight to bring his lunch and endeavors to cheer him up while he struggles with the powers of sleep. At this juncture he receives a telegraph message instructing him to flag train No. 9 and sidetrack the same, giving the President's Special the right of way on the track. This the wife hears and leaves.

Suddenly the scene changes to the quiet of the home. His child is saying her midnight prayers in the midst of which the wife hears the low whistle of No. 9 coming down the track. In a second she realizes that her husband has failed to flag the train. Grabbing up a red table cloth she dashes from the house to stop the train, but it is too late—the train has passed. Fate at this moment takes up the destiny of lives and brings down the road an automobile. The frantic woman hails the car, and in a spirit of desperation tells what is needed to save hundreds of lives; the train must be stopped. A second of explanation and the big touring car is seen dashing down the road at the rate of 60 miles an hour after the express train.

Then follows a race so thrilling that few spectators have seen its equal in a moving picture. The train is reached; the engineer sees the signal and stops the train. A wreck has been averted and the wife of the telegraph operator at Willowby Station becomes the heroine of a splendid, dramatic moving picture.

GENERAL BUSSEY HURT.

Noted brother of local hack owner injured in Washington, D. C. General Cyrus Bussey, a brother of Ed Bussey of this city, who is now living in Washington, D. C., was seriously injured some time ago by being knocked down by a bicycle in Washington according to the Washington Post, just received here.

General Bussey is 76 years old and the fall and injuries naturally created serious after effects, but according to the item in the Post, he has a chance for recovery. General Bussey is one of the most prominent of the Civil War veterans alive today. He was assistant secretary of the interior from 1889 to 1893 and is an old time leader of the Republican party. His record started when he recruited cavalry in Ohio and fought with that regiment in many bloody battles, being later placed at the head of Grant's cavalry forces.

It has been Ed. Bussey's privilege but once to meet his brother in the last two decades, and that was at Salt Lake last year.

The time to plant a new orchard or add to your present one is now—this spring. Remember this—an orchard planted this spring will be a year nearer bearing and a year nearer profit than an orchard planted next spring. Why not gain that year and that profit? The year thus saved may be the year when you would harvest your first big money-earning crop—the year when fruit prices soared and turned your orchard into a veritable gold mine.

Planting season is not governed by date, season or climatic conditions but by the condition of the stock to be planted. So long as the stock is dormant, it will plant successfully weeks after your spring has opened.

These Idaho trees above listed are dormant—they will plant successfully and make you a model orchard and pay you profits. Every tree is a true Stark Tree—the only standard of tree you can afford to plant. You must order immediately. Send your order and remittance either to.
