SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County, Nellie Farrier, Plaintiff, vs. Cleve Farmer, defendant, Summons:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby summoned and directed to appear and plead to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit and court, on or before the 5th day of April, 1910, the same being the last day of the publication of this summons, the first day of publication hereof being February 27th, 1910.

And if you fail to appear, answer or otherwise plead within the said time, the plaintiff will apply thereafter to the above entitled court for default against you for such failure and demand the relief prayed for in her complaint filed herein, to-wit: For a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, by reason of defendant having deserted and abandoned plaintiff without her consent for more than one year immediately prior to the commencement of this suit; for cruel and inhuman treatment of plaintiff by defendant and personal indignities inflicted by defendant on plaintiff as set forth in the complaint filed herein to which reference is hereby made; that plaintiff be decreed her former name and alimony from defendant; that any and all rights of defendant in and to the SW 1-4 NE 1-4 Section 12, Tp 28 R. 35, E. W. M. be cut off and extinguished and the same be decreed to plaintiff absolutely; for her costs and disbursements herein and for general relief.

This summons is published by virtue of an order made and entered by Hon. J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above entitled Court, at Chambers, in La Grande, Oregon, on the 24th day of February, 1910, which Order directed the service of this summons upon you by publication for a period of six consecutive weeks in the La Grande Evening Observer, a newspaper, published at La Grande, Union County, Oregon.

First publication February 25, 1910
