DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Ellnor Glyn and Yvette Guilbert are announced as recent members of anti-suffrage associations.

That women should train their husbands to do most of the household work is the solution of the servant problem offered by Miss A. L. Mariett of Wisconsin.

Mrs. T. F. Beall, a rural mail carrier of the Burbank district, in California, goes over her twenty-five mile route in an automobile which she has bought with her own earnings.

Miss Vida Goldstein of Melbourne has been nominated for the senate of Federated Australia by the Woman's Political association of Victoria, of which she is the president.

Miss Julia H. Gulliver of Rockford, Ill., has been elected an officer of the French academy. Miss Gulliver is the president of Rockford college. She was in the first class graduated at Smith college and has been a pioneer in in-roducing vocation courses in women's colleges.

The Marchioness of Londonderry, one of the most intellectual and gifted women of the time, who has been appointed by the king to be a member of the first senate of the Queen's university, Ireland, for many years has identified herself very closely with matters affecting women in Ireland and in England.

Fly Catches.

Pittsburg and Chicago will play eleven of their scheduled games during the first twenty-three days of the season.

Over $5,000,000 has been invested in improvements on the various baseball grounds in the big leagues in the last year.

When the St. Louis Browns and the Chicago played a draw for the world's championship in 1895 each player received $41.70 as his share.

The regulation baseball watch is used in the big leagues weighs not less than five ounces or more than five and a quarter. In circumference it must not be less than nine inches or more than nine and one-quarter.

College and School.

Truancy is on the increase in New York city, and the board of education complains of the indifference of parents.

Mrs. Amanda W. Reed of Portland, Ore., bequeathed $2,000,000 to establish a college in Portland to be known as the Reed Institute.

During the past year at Edinburgh, Scotland's youngest university, the total number of matriculated students, including 594 women, was 3,322.

From 1753 until 1784 Columbia college was King's college. Then, the people having shown by sword and cannon that they had no further use for kings, the legislature ordained that it should be Columbia college.

The Writers.

Rostand, the author of "Cyrano," is said to have made $1,500,000 out of one play.

Sir W. S. Gilbert, J. M. Barrie and Sir Arthur Pinero make more money than any other British dramatists.

The society Amis de Balzac has rented the house in Rue Fortune, Paris, where the great novelist died. It hopes to get enough money to buy it and make a memorial storehouse.

Reginald Clarence, the well known bibliographer of dramatic data, has been working for twenty years on a stage cyclopedia which will contain a bibliography of plays of which it has been possible to find any record from B. C. 500 to A. D. 1900.

Current Comment.

The most expensive watch in the world is that kept on Germany by Great Britain.—Washington Post.

When T. R. comes back he is to be tendered a "dollar dinner." He'd better bring his meat from Africa if he doesn't want to go hungry.—Cleveland Leader.

The revelations in a New York court where a negro railroad porter was up for speeding in his automobile to the effect that he had bought the car from tips he had received dispose of the idea that the porter owns only the railroad.—Boston Advertiser.

Law Points.

The mere running away of a team is held in Collier versus Knox, 222 Pa., 362; 71 Atl. 539, 23 L. R. A. (N. S.), 171, not to imply negligence on the part of the owner.

Carrying in the hand a pair of saddlebags with the lids down which contain a pistol, which is hidden from common observation, is held in Sutherland versus Com. (Va.), 65 S. E., 15, 23 L. R. A. (N. S.), 172, not to be a violation of a statute making it an offense to carry a pistol about the person hidden from common observation.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are safe, sure and reliable, and have been praised by thousands of women who have been restored to health through their gentle aid and curative properties.
