S. Land Office at La Grande, Oregon, January 24th, 1910.

Notice is hereby given that Walter E. Pratt, whose postoffice address is Alice, Oregon, did on the 24th day of June, 1909, file in this office sworn

"Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised, $245.00, the timber estimated 205,000 board feet at $1.00 per M, and the land $40.00; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 21st day of April, 1910, before the Register and Receiver, United States Land Office, at La Grande, Oregon; test this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest before patent is issued, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.

F. C. BRAMWELL, Register.

Buying a Warranty Did you know that placing your reliance up a warranty deed is simply bidding for a lawsuit?

In California this fact is so well understood that a warranty deed is looked upon with suspicion.

It is for this reason: If the title is good it passes with the deed, and that it all there is to it—no need of a warranty. If bad, the adding of a warranty does not make it good.

A warranty is only a sort of bet—a wager that you will have no trouble; but if you do, and finally lose out, I'll pay your money back.

A better plan is to require an abstract. Consult

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

SO DISTRESSING. A TERRIBLE trouble the wealthy are having just giving their money away. It looks for the world like a matter quite simple. As easy as kissing or play. From Monday Till Sunday They scheme and they worry. But still at the end of the week They find that their barrel is fastened securely. Nor showing so much as a leak. To those not possessing the thing looks so lovely And one that were easily done— Just ring up the stable and call for a above! And scoop the stuff out by the ton. To measure The treasure in half bushel baskets Seems truly as simple as sin. But those who are burdened with more than a million Don't seem to know where to begin. Use reason with them, if their talk is in earnest. Is that on themselves they depend. If they would be friendly and call in assistance Their problem would come to an end. A dollar Would hold For help from the ditches Of those who would give it away, And volunteers given a free rein and unhampered Would clean the thing up in a Jay.

Neglected Opportunity. "What do you regard as the most serious mistake of your life, Uncle Daniel?" "Well, I think about the foolishest thing I ever did was to be cured of a disease with a big name by a stingy little patent medicine." "Did it do the work?" "Well, I said so in my letter to the company." "Then where is your kick?" "They only gave me a two line notice in the papers, while my cousin George, who got cured of a disease that wasn't half so long, got a full quarter of a page picture." Needed To. "She is learning to sing." "Is she?" "Yes." "Has she had an estimate?" "An estimate on what?" "On her chances of life. I dare say she expects to live to a ripe old age." His Element. Dear, you would make a flying man. A fine one, I declare. It would be easy, for you know how much you're in the air. Unworked Field. "I'm a little bit of an author."
