NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.
Department of the Interior
S. Land Office at La Grande, Ore., January 24th, 1910.
Notice is hereby given that Walter Pratt, whose postoffice address is Sel, Oregon, did on the 24th day of June, 1909, file in this office sworn statement and Application, No. 3, to purchase the S 1-2 NE 1-4, Section 8, Township 2 South, Range 1 East, Willamette Meridian, and timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, which act amendatory, known as the "Cahoon and Stone Law," at such time as might be fixed by appraiser, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised, $245.00, the timber estimated 205,000 board feet at $1.00 per M, and the land $40.00. The said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application on the 21st day of April, 1910, before the Register and Receiver, United States Land Office, at La Grande, Oregon. This purchase before entry, or in case a contest before patent is made, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
F. C. BRAMWELL,
Register.

Buying a Lawsuit
Did you know that placing your name up a warranty deed is simply adding a lawsuit?
California this fact is so well understood that a warranty deed is looked upon with suspicion.
It is for this reason:
If the title is good it passes with the deed, and that it all there is to—no need of a warranty. If bad, no adding of a warranty does not make it good.
A warranty is only a sort of bet—wager that you will have no trouble; but if you do, and finally let out, I'll pay your money back.
A better plan is to require an abstract. Consult

The Knockers.
Listen, my children, and you shall hear
Of the midnight rife of Paul Reverse
In the newest version framed to show
The startling fact that it isn't so.
The knocker comes with his hammer strong
And says the account is false and wrong:
That he never rode as the poet said.
But instead was at home and asleep in bed.
And, having demolished Paul's friendly lamp,
He says Sam Adams was but a scamp.
And the men who were mixed with the Boston tea
Were hardly the pick of society.
And, indeed, he is sure that heroic crew
Was a smuggler band if his guess is true;
That some of them went about dodging debt
And taking whatever their hands could get.
Ben Franklin, too, if his dope is right,
Was a naughty and most unlovely wight
Who opened letters and robbed the mail
And barely escaped a term in jail.
And the soldiers who made the British fly
On manners and morals were somewhat shy.
Not patriots, as it is told in the books,
But a lot of grand old high grade crooks.
You will notice this if his screed you've read
That he waited till all were good and dead
Before he started his knocking game
To dim the edge of their well earned fame.
If he could have said it to their face
He wouldn't have made such an awful case.
But, whatever the truth of his lies may be,
Those old boys suit us to a T.

Safe in Declining.
"I would not take an automobile as a gift."
"Why not?"
"Nobody would offer me one."
