IN SOCIETY

The Lyle Tuesday Musicals met in the club parlors on Sixth street, Tuesday afternoon April 26. Mrs. R. L. Newlin was leader for the afternoon and delighted the members with an interesting story of Handel's life and music. Not only did this master musician furnish musical entertainment, but the study of Psychology is music as well. The following program was heartily enjoyed.

Handel's Life—Mrs. Fred Curry.
Handel's Music—Mrs. E. C. Moore.
Piano Solo—Handel—Mrs. W. W. Berry.
Vocal Solo "Weeping Forever"—Handel—Mrs. Upton.
Piano Solo—Handel—Miss Stella Oliver.
Vocal Solo (a) "He Shall Feed His Flock" (b) "Come Unto Me"—Handel—Mrs. Atwood.

Mrs. E. C. Moore entertained informally at her home on Fourth street, Wednesday evening. Much pleasure was derived from the following impromptu program:

Recitation—Study in Tragedy—Mrs. E. C. Moore.
Piano Solo—Selected—Mrs. Carlock.

Violin Solo—Selected—Miss Della Young.

Mrs. T. N. Murphy entertained the Five Hundred Club at her home on Main Avenue Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Van Buren won first prize, a cut glass bowl. A delicious luncheon was served.

The event last night at the high school had a touch of society, for where there are high school girls and boys assembled in their usual stamping grounds then there are always such things as make the events informal and social like. The program last night was especially well rendered and every number was good.

Lodge functions have been numerous this week. The Pythian reception last Thursday night was one of the most important lodge events of the month. Wednesday night saw the usual large attendance at the Eastern Star which was as much social as fraternal.

The best music that has officiated at a dancing party this winter is the way the music at the La Grande band, dance last night is characterized. Ten pieces composed the orchestra and in addition to the excellent music, the crowd was jovial and a really delightful time was enjoyed by everyone present. More like them would not be amiss.

Medical Springs News Letter.

Medical Springs, Apr 30 (Special)—The hotel at the Springs continues to be well patronized and is an ever popular resort for those who value the curative properties of hot mineral water. The hotel is a pleasant resort and located in a beautiful country, where good hunting and fishing are near at hand.

The general store of George Smith is the only business of the kind in this vicinity and enjoys a high degree of popularity and also the patronage of the people here.

Summer sports have begun and on Sunday 25 or 30 young men were practicing baseball on the grounds at the Springs and a goodly contingent of ladies occupied the grandstand to applaud the players. The usual Saturday night dance at the hall at the Springs, under the management of Mrs. Foye was a very pleasant affair and drew a good attendance.

Earl Stevenson, formerly of La Grande and lately with the Buckmart mine has leased the Vandevanter hall from Cy Turner. This is the largest and most popular dancing place on Big Creek and Mr. Stevenson expects a good patronage.

Councilman J. E. Orvis of La Grande, was a recent business visitor here.

Superintendent Robt. Veatch, of the Indiana mine, has returned from an extended visit to Sumpter.

George South, the local merchant, is making regular weekly trips to Baker City for goods.

Wallace Harris of Cove, who was a recent sojourner at the Springs has gone to Baker City to join the J. K. Romig's construction crew for the Eagle Creek power plant which is to begin work May 1.

John Reeves of Union, is taking the census of this district and is making good progress with the work.

D. E. Cook, manager of the hotel here is census taker for the North Powder precinct.
