SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County

Mrs. C. M. Wall, Plaintiff, vs. Mr. M. J. Dorsey and Mrs. M. J. Dorsey, Defendants.

To Mr. M. J. Dorsey and Mrs. M. J. Dorsey, the above named defendants:—

In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby summoned to appear and answer, or otherwise plead, to the complaint filed against you and each of you in the above entitled action and court, on or before six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this summons.

And if you, or either of you, fail, neglect or refuse to do, or at all, appear, answer or otherwise plead here in on or before said date then the plaintiff will thereafter apply to the above entitled Court for default against you and each of you for such failure, neglect or refusal and for judgment against you and each of you for the principal sum of $200.00 together with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from October 15th, 1907, until paid, and for the sum of $50.00 as plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees in said action and for her costs and disbursements to be taxed by the Court, and the Plaintiff will further, at said time, ask for an order of said Court directing a sale, as provided by law, of the property herein heretofore attached.

This summons is published by virtue of an order of the Honorable J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above entitled Court, made, dated and entered at Chambers in La Grande, Union County, State of Oregon, on the 22d day of October, 1909, directing that this summons should be published for a period of six weeks, from and after the date of the first publication thereof, in the La Grande Evening Observer, and the date of the first publication of this summons is March 26th, 1910

Coming Attractions

The Steward's "Next"

Messrs. Stair and Nicoli will present for the first time in this city, the sixth edition of their popular racing play "His Last Dollar," at the Steward May 3, with David Higgins, author, in the leading role.

The story of the play is modern in that it deals with the experience of a rich Kentuckian who seeks to become richer by means of stock speculation, and is interesting that it tells a stirring love story and it brings into the play the interest that usually accompanies the winning of a great horse race.

There is one thing especially good about the presentation. All of the well known characters found in the blue grass region of Kentucky, the scene of the story, are portrayed in a natural manner, but in a way that does not give offense. There is nothing questionable about the play, and the lines are bright and clever. Mr. Higgins has a number of very effective situations and his droll humor creates many laughs. Altogether the presentation is far above the ordinary, and the play is soon to have a big run.

A Simple Love Story.

A simple love story, involving a broken promise, a maddened father, and a tragedy but the film is a marvel of beauty, color, light and shade. Perhaps the story it tells may seem hackneyed, but the beauty of the pictures presented more than compensate for any lack of strength in the story. It will long be remembered for this when the somewhat commonplace story will be forgotten.

Byron's Troubadours May 20th.

The "Agoa" class of the Baptist Sunday School have secured Byron's troubadours for an entertainment on Friday evening, May 20th. Many tickets are spoken for already. The boys of the class will have bills and tickets out by the first week in May. This will be the best musical entertainment ever in La Grande. Rev. R. C. Ransom, of Chicago, says: "The Byron Troubadours musical entertainment at our church was one of the most delightful musical treats we have ever had. The music, vocal and instrumental, was breezy, fresh and highly entertaining not only in good form, but pure and elevating, and it gives me pleasure to recommend them to all churches and any Christian organizations." Watch for the bills and further announcements.

SNODGRASS GROCERY

A SCENE FROM "HIS LAST DOLLAR" AT THE STEWARD MAY 3rd

Daddy's Bedtime Story—Weary Willie and the Scarecrow

"I'm lusted!"

"OUT in the country," said daddy, "sometimes the farmer man has to put up a scarecrow in his field to scare the crows away from his growing crops. Crows like to eat young corn, but they're mighty tricky birds, and a scarecrow makes them keep away. Once a farmer who had a little girl four years old took some of his old clothes and fastened them over a frame to make a scarecrow. There was a ragged old coat and pants, an old pair of shoes and a battered hat. All these stuck up on a pole in the field looked just as if a man was standing there in the corn."

"The little girl got used to looking at the scarecrow and wasn't a bit afraid of it, but all the crows were. When they flew into the field they saw this scarecrow, and they cried 'Caw, caw, caw!' and flew right away again and never came back. 'What's the scarecrow's name, daddy?' asked the little girl. 'Well, let's call him Weary Willie,' said the farmer, 'for he looks just like a tramp.'

"One morning the little girl looked out and didn't see the scarecrow at all. 'Why, where's Weary Willie?' she said to herself. 'I'll just run out there and look for him.' So she went out to look for Weary Willie. He was nowhere to be found in the field, and the little girl trotted along and climbed over the fence and looked for him down by the creek. She tried to go back home, but she couldn't find the way. At first she was frightened, but just then she saw Weary Willie standing by the creek.

"'Hello, Weary Willie!' cried the little girl. 'Have you runned away?' 'No,' said the scarecrow, 'but you have. What you doing here, little un?' 'I'm lusted,' said the little girl. 'I s'pose you are,' said the scarecrow, 'but how'd you know I'm a Weary Willie?' 'Cause my daddy said that was his scarecrow's name.'

"The scarecrow laughed loud. 'Well, little un,' he said, 'if you'll promise to make your daddy give me a job and not have me 'rusted I'll take you back home, and you won't be lusted any more.' 'All right, Mr. Scarecrow,' said the little girl.

"So the scarecrow took her by the hand and led her up to her daddy.

"'I'm a tramp, mister,' said Weary Willie, 'and I took the clothes off your scarecrow and put 'em on, 'cause they was better'n mine, but if you'll give me a job I'll work for you.'

"So that's how the little girl got her daddy a hired man."
