Tales of Cities.

New York is not a city of spend-thrifts, for its savings banks have 2,870,659 depositors.

Rochester is the first city in the production of photographic supplies, output of seeds and nursery stock and optical instruments.

London is now considering a scheme for the better drainage of its streets that was first propounded by Benjamin Franklin 150 years ago—the idea of a single gutter in the middle of the thoroughfare.

At the Railway Station.

"Has the two-thirty-train gone?"
"Yes, ma'am; five minutes ago."
"When's the next train?"
"Four-fifteen, ma'am."
"Thank goodness, I'm in time!"—Lippincott's.
