SAVED HER SON'S LIFE

My son Rex was taken down a year ago with lung trouble. We doctor'd some months without improvement. Then I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed a change for the better. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks and now my son is perfectly well and works every day.

KETCHEL TO MEET TOUGH NUT

Sam Langford Likely to Surprise Champion.

BOUT SHOULD BE WARM ONE.

Both men have punches with force of a mule's kick behind them in either mitt and are game to the core.

A battle second only in importance to the Jeffries-Johnson mill is now in order. Stanley Ketchel, the middle-weight champion, and Sam Langford, the bird hitting light heavyweight, have practically agreed to meet in San Francisco within the next month or so. The bout between them promises to be a grudge affair and is a puzzaistic plum for which the promoters the country over have been bidding for many moons.

With the men in good condition the bout should result in one of the best contests ever pulled off in this country. Both men carry a knockout wallop in either hand and are game to the core. Langford is a larger edition of Joe Walcott, the little negro who made things warm for the big heavyweights several years ago, and for the last two years has been the bogey man to the so called champions in the heavy and middle weight divisions.

In anticipation of his battle with Langford, Ketchel has canceled all his future engagements and will give his hand, which he injured in his go with Frank Klaus in Pittsburgh recently, a chance to heal properly. Ketchel's battle with Klaus was a big disappointment to his followers. He displayed none of that form which made

SAM LANGFORD, WHO IS TO MEET KETCHEL him famous, in fact, he fought like a second rater. After his poor showing Ketchel gave as an excuse that he did not train properly. That's a time worn statement and a poor one. The middleweight champion should have been in good shape for the go.

With Ketchel in first class condition he could put Klaus away in six rounds or come pretty near it, anyway. The real trouble with Stanley is that he has been training on sparkling wine since he was defeated by Johnson last October and needs a good long siege of hard training.

In Langford he will meet a man almost as good as Johnson. In his last bout with Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, the negro showed what he could do when he tried. He toyed with Flynn for a few rounds, studying his style, and then planted a few telling blows on the latter's chin. Then, stepping back and measuring his distance, he sent over a crashing punch that sent his man into dreamland.

With condition guaranteed on both sides, it looks like one of the spectacular encounters of ring history—a great white middleweight champion pitted against an equally great hitting black man who has been denied the glories of a championship because of his ability. Want any more excuse for action than that?

Wolast Draws Color Line.

Ad Wolast, the new lightweight champion, is reported to have said: "No colored scrappers for me. If any black man gets near the top in the lightweight class he never will win the championship by whipping us, for I'll never enter the ring with a negro I draw the color line. Joe Gans is down and out for good, but if he does want a chance he will not get it from me."
