LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. Margaret Black of Baker City is here visiting friends.

Mrs. Maggie Shearer returned last evening from Spokane where she has been staying for some time.

B. A. Borlow, a prominent banker of Park River, North Dakota, arrived this morning on business matters. He may locate in Union county.

D. C. Brischoux today printed a large number of working blue prints for Newton C. Gaunt, the architect for the new high school.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schwerdtmann of Portland, have returned after a visit with relatives here, including the D. D. Turner family and the John Gardner family.

A report from the hospital as we go to press is to the effect that Joe Ebersole who was operated upon for appendicitis a few days ago, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. W. R. Hamilton went to Summerville this morning where she has accepted a position as manager of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company.

W. H. Casey of this city was called to the bedside of his brother John Casey at Portland last evening and Mr. Casey took the evening train for Portland.

Will Morrison returned last evening from Los Angeles where he and Mrs. Morrison went some months ago for her health. Mrs. Morrison will remain a short time longer before returning here.

U. R. Wilson of Baker City has been spending the last few days in this city and leaves in the morning for a visit in eastern states. He will return in about two months and make La Grande his home.

About The City

Will Work at Golden Rule

W. W. Berry has sold his interest in the firm of Andrews & Berry to A. V. Andrews. Mr. Berry will remain in La Grande and from tomorrow morning will be connected with the Golden Rule.

Frost in Wisconsin

F. H. Green of the Blue Mountain Creamery has received letters from relatives in Southern Wisconsin saying that a foot of snow fell last Friday and Saturday and that the weather is below zero. This is also true in central and northern Wisconsin.

Isis Pictures Please

A packed house saw the last reel of the Roosevelt pictures at the Isis last evening. The pictures are remarkably instructive and clear too, when one considers that many of the pictures were taken at long range. Manager Sherwood has been complimented on bringing the interesting films to the city.

Tells of Discharge

I was one of the firemen discharged from the services of the O. R. & N. simply because I am physically unable to fire one of the new Mallet engines and I am in the best of health and physicians pronounce me a man of more than ordinary physical strength. Geo. W. Taggart.

Chautauqua Meeting Tonight

This evening the members of the executive committee of the chautauqua association holds its regular weekly meeting. As far as known, there is no particular weighty subject up for discussion this evening, but routine matters will be attended to.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership

By mutual consent, the firm of Andrews & Berry has dissolved partnership. Mr. W. W. Berry retiring from the firm and Mr. A. V. Andrews continuing the business. All parties indebted to said firm are requested to call at once and settle accounts. ANDREWS & BERRY.

Will Organize Art Class

All those desiring instruction in water color work for the summer months, should phone to Black 3712 or see Miss Blanch Clark.

Funeral Today

Mrs. O. M. Amos was buried at Island City today, services commencing at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Amos died yesterday morning following a long siege of pain from burns received seven weeks ago.

Candy Sale Tomorrow

The junior girls of the Central Christian church will hold a candy sale tomorrow at the entrance of N. K. West's, the "Quality store," and also at Lilly's hardware store. The society is raising money to send delegates to the state convention at Turner, Oregon, June 25 to July 2.

Rummage Sale

The rummage sale by the ladies of St. Peter's Guild will be continued over tomorrow in the sample room at the rear of the Sommer hotel. Some bargains in suits and clothing to be had, generously donated by the merchants of the town.

"The Enchanted Castle" at the Isis

Here is what might pass for Roseland's famous "Chantecler" transferred to a motion picture film. All the characters in it are animals and while it is what might be termed a romantic comedy-drama, it will interest the children as well as the older people. It contains an abundance of humor, not a few thrilling situations, and plenty of life and action, enough, at least, to hold interest at a high level. It is well acted, the staging is adequate and photography is clear and even. The company's reputation for excellence will be appreciably enhanced by this picture.

Blind Organist Dead

Mrs. Thomas Budge this morning received the sad news that her uncle, Charles Fowler, had died Monday at Knoxville, Illinois, of heart disease. He was born in England, and at the time of his death was 70 years of age. He has been totally blind since he was six months of age. He received his education in a school for the blind and at the time of his death was employed as organist for St. Mary's school for young women located at Knoxville, a position he has held for nearly 25 years. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the chapel of the school in which he worked for so many years.
