The Remedy.

"He is enormously rich."
"Is he?"
"Yes; he doesn't know what to do with his money."
"That is an easy matter."
"How do you make that out?"
"He should marry, and his wife would swiftly tell him what to do with it."

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN H. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

TRYING to get warm by looking at the street lamps is about as satisfying as trying to get to heaven on your wife's religion.

A good wife is one who can make a good pie or a good cake or a good husband.

Good manners are never good when like the Sunday gown, they are kept for best.

Philosophy is what you use to assuage the other fellow's grief with.

Divorce is one of the conveniences of married life.

Money isn't such a comfortable thing to have around when burglars are about.

If beauty is only skin deep some of these fellows that get nicely skinned couldn't star in a beauty contest.

Buying a Warranty

Did you know that placing your reliance upon a warranty deed is simply buying a lawsuit?
In California this fact is so well understood that a warranty deed is always given with suspicion.

It is for this reason:
If the title is good it passes with the deed, and that it all there is to be no need of a warranty. If bad the adding of a warranty does not make it good.

A warranty is only a sort of bet—a wager that you will have no trouble; but if you do, and finally lose out, I'll pay your money back.

A better plan is to require an abstract. Consult
