Rock Creek Residents Charged With Blowing Up a Cabin

Baker City, May 2—(Special)—M. S. and L. C. Carpenter were taken in charge in Mormon Basin yesterday by Sheriff Rand and Deputy Ike McChord, charged with the blowing up of a cabin in Mormon Basin, which was occupied by Greek wood choppers.

They are both young men, about 19 and 27 years of age. Their parents live in the Rock Creek district in Union county, while they have spent a great deal of their time in the Cornucopia district.

Detectives were set on the trail of the raiders following a night attack on the wood choppers. Masked men approached the cabin and commanded the Greeks to leave and then blew up the cabin with dynamite. The arrests yesterday were the outcome of a dthé authorities claim to have a strong case against the prisoners.
