Open Real Estate Office.

George H. Currey, former editor and proprietor of the Evening Observer today received a new touring car and will open a real estate office as soon as the season opens. Mr. Currey will use his machine in connection with the real estate office. Mr. Currey has seen Union county and La Grande grow from a very mediocre state of industry 20 years ago to its present thrift and enterprise and his large acquaintance and thorough knowledge of land values and his well known integrity should spell for him success in the business venture.

Byron's Troubadors May 20th.

The "Agora" class of the Baptist

Sunday School have secured Byron's troubadours for an entertainment on Friday evening, May 20th. Many tickets are spoken for already. The boys of the class will have bills and tickets out by the first week in May. This will be the best musical entertainment ever in La Grande. Rev. R. C. Ransom, of Chicago, says: "The Byron Troubadours musical entertainment at our church was one of the most delightful musical treats we have ever had. The music, vocal and instrumental, was breezy, fresh and highly entertaining not only in good form, but pure and elevating, and it gives me pleasure to recommend them to all churches and any Christian organizations." Watch for the bills and further announcements.

The Isis Program Today.

The Isis has a program of more than usual merit this change. Some of the feature films are:

"Tale of a Tenement"—A pretty little story, played with sufficient sympathy to develop all its possibilities. It carries with it a tender love story more so than the average, and many sentimentally thoughts will gather as one sees the picture run.

"Sporty Dad"—When a father and two sons are represented as admirers of the same girl the possibilities for humorous complications can, perhaps, be imagined.

"In the Frozen North"—A master of Western scenes and faithfully depicting Indian character and life. Selig has added another feature to his product which will be certain to please.

Every merchant seen subscribed the amount asked for. Gold medals are to cost $6 apiece, the Peare and Selgrist jewelry stores furnishing the decorations at cost. The required gold medals were subscribed first and the silver medals later. Every merchant responded willingly and at all turns was the management assured of moral and financial backing.

The merchants who subscribed for the medals are: Gold Medals—La Grande National Bank, A. T. Hill's drug store, E. D. Selder's candy store J. C. Peare, dentist, Dr. G. L. Biggers, A. V. Andrews clothing store, M. J. Halley, United States National Bank, Henry & Carr's furniture store, Selgrist jewelry store, W. H. Bohnenkamp Co., O. E. Silverthorne, C. T. Bacon and Newlin drug store. Ritter, E. Polack, Dr. G. W. Zimmerman and P. A. Foley Relay Cup—J. H. Peare. The team management and team members have cast a generous vote of thanks to the merchants who have assisted them and the team can now sleep nights without nightmares of deficits in the expense account of conducting this meet.

Medicines that aid nature are always most successful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

MERCHANTS IN SYMPATHY

ALL MEDALS FOR COMING MEET SUBSCRIBED FOR

Big Conclave of Athletes to be in La Grande May 21st.

That the merchants of La Grande have the utmost faith in the local track and field team and are willing to back up the organization financially, is attested by a canvas made of a few of the merchants yesterday afternoon by Manager Henry Heidenrich and Captain Willie Peare of the team management. In less than a three hour canvas enough money was subscribed to procure first class medals for all contestants in the meet in the Eastern Oregon field meet to be held in this city on May 21st. The cost of the medals alone amount to about $125 and the management was forced to secure backing to cover the expense of holding the meet. Over 200 athletes and many followers from Eastern Oregon towns will be here for the meet.
