Census in Cactus Center.
 Down here in good old Cactus we never have much fuss. When Uncle Samuel figgers he'll count the herd of us. We give each census taker a brand book and a sun. And when he shows his hardware his work's as good as done.
 Of course it sometimes happens that some one calls the piny. And seeks to dodge the questions in low down orn'ry way. But gin'rally it follers one shot 'il bring him to And make his answer prompt-like, the way good homoreys do.
 We've planed up on Boot hill a few whose stubbornness Mussed up the brand book record and stopped things more or less. But this year's census takers will work without a flaw. 'Cause nary census dodger can beat 'em on the draw.
 -Arthur Chapman in Denver Republican.
