HALF DAY SESSION WILL HEAR
PROMINENT MEN.

Superintendent Bragg Plans for Instructive Half-day Session

On May 21, the day of the Eastern Oregon track and field meet in this city, Union county pedagogues will meet for a one session convention in this city and as an inducement for a large attendance, Superintendent Bragg has made arrangements to have here as special speakers for the occasion, Professors Conlag of Ontario, Churchill of Baker City, Landers of Pendleton and very probably State Superintendent Ackerman. The session will commence at nine and continue until noon and at that time the teachers will adjourn and proceed to attend the big meet.

About 75 teachers of the county will attend the convention.

SCRIBER JURY IS SECURED

Portland, May 10.—J. W. Scriber, the La Grande banker, on trial for the alleged violation of the national banking laws, is under way today. The jury was chosen this forenoon. District Attorney McCourt made the opening statement this afternoon. Ex Senator Fulton speaks for the defense. Scriber pleaded not guilty yesterday afternoon.

A large number of witnesses besides those subpoenaed last week are being ordered today to appear at the Scriber trial which was started yesterday at Portland. United States Marshal C. R. Nicholson of Portland is here today with a "list" of the subpoenas ordering attendance at the trial, and the people called will make their appearance at once. This brings the total number of witnesses ordered to Portland from La Grande close to 75.

Baker Teacher to Wed

Thomas Lee of Baker City was yesterday evening granted a license to wed Mrs. Fannie Brown of this county. Mr. Lee is a teacher at Baker City.

144 WILL TAKE
EXAMINATION

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY SET AS 8th GRADE QUIZ DAY.

Chairmen of School Districts Will Conduct the Examinations

Next Thursday and Friday 144 8th grade students of Union county will prespire over a set of eight grade examinations sent out last week by County School Superintendent Bragg. The examinations will be conducted in each school district and the chairman of the school board or someone not directly connected with the teaching of the pupils taking the examination, will conduct the quizzes. Judging from last year's success in its examination, a large percentage of the applicants will be promoted to the high schools.

Going to Seek Gold.

Fairbanks, May 10.—Ice in the Chena river is breaking today. Before the end of the week navigation on the Lower Yukon begins. The first boat is scheduled to leave on Thursday and the departure marks the beginning of the gold rush to the interior. Thousand of men are already prepared to start for the new district.

Arrest Prominent Grocer

Spokane, May 10.—Residents are eating storage eggs that are not good enough for Butte, according to W. H. Adams, deputy pure food inspector, today. Adams procured warrants for the arrest of a local representative of the Armour company. The local agent, C. E. Marr, a prominent grocer is charged with selling eggs unfit for food. Marr pleaded guilty.

Street Cars Held for Taxes

Seattle, May 10.—Seattle Electric street cars will be chained to the track until the Stone Webster company pays taxes of two companies, according to a decision reached by the county officials. County Treasurer Gormly has been quarrelling with the corporation over its 1908 taxes and says he will use this method to secure payment.

Population Starving.

Juneau, Alaska, May 10.—According to officers of the schooner Anita Phillips which just arrived here, when the schooner reached the settlement of Yatakiga, the first ship in eight months, it found the population of 350 starving. They had a few beans, some tea and gold enough to buy provisions for 50 years. The vessel left supplies enough for six months.

Negro Attacks White Man

A lively case of assault took place late this afternoon when over some altercation not yet discovered, the negro porter at the Hagen barber shop struck down a white man in the alley near the city hall. Both are in the city jail at four o'clock awaiting formal charges. The name of the victim of the assault is not known.

A. S. Geddes, of Geddes Bros., is confined to his home with illness.

May Run for Congress

Washington, May 10.—If it is necessary, I will return to Portland and run for congress myself. Under any conditions, I will stay with this fight for justice until I win," declared Mrs. James B. Sutton today. Mrs. Sutton has been trying to get a congressional investigation into the death of her son at Annapolis which has already been probed twice by the naval board. Mrs. Sutton is in earnest about running for congress.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County

Mrs. C. M. Wall, Plaintiff, vs. Mr. M. J. Dorsey and Mrs. M. J. Dorsey, Defendants.

To Mr. M. J. Dorsey and Mrs. M. J. Dorsey, the above named defendants:—

In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby summoned to appear and answer, or otherwise plead, to the complaint filed against you and each of you in the above entitled action and court, on or before six week from and after the date of the first publication of this summons.

And if you, or either of you, fail, neglect or refuse to so, or at all, appear, answer or otherwise plead here in on or before said date then the plaintiff will thereafter apply to the above entitled Court for default against you and each of you for such failure, neglect or refusal and for judgment against you and each of you for the principal sum of $200.00 together with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from October 15th, 1907, until paid, and for the sum of $50.00 as plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees in said action and for her costs and disbursements to be taxed by the Court, and the Plaintiff will further, at said time, ask for an order of said Court directing a sale, as provided by law,

Oregon Strawberries Here.

The Snodgrass grocery store today carried Milton grown strawberries, selling at 25 cents a box. This is the first Oregon grown shipment received here.

Relay Cup Here.

The relay cup, which is among the trophies donated by the merchants of La Grande for the winners of the Eastern Oregon track meet, has reached here and is now on show at the Peare jewelry store.

Uncle Meets Death.

A. V. Oliver was appraised by wire this morning of the accidental killing in California of his uncle, J. L. Sampson. Details of the accident are lacking, except that the telegram stated that Mr. Sampson had been thrown from a horse. Mr. Sampson has been in La Grande on visiting tours. He was 50 years old.

Gasoline Cars Go West.

Last evening two gasoline motor cars passed through La Grande en route to a northern line in Washington. These are becoming popular cars for passengers, mail and baggage service on branch lines.

of the property herein heretofore attached.

This summons is published by virtue of an order of the Honorable J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above entitled Court, made, dated and entered at Chambers in La Grande, Union County, State of Oregon, on the 22d day of October, 1909, directing that this summons should be published for a period of six weeks, from and after the date of the first publication thereof, in the La Grande Evening Observer, and the date of the first publication of this summons is March 26th, 1910

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords.

Notice.

The Chautauqua tickets will be placed with the treasurer, W. R. Jones, who will keep them at Bohnenkamp & Company's store where all subscribers may call and secure them. BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

About The City

Brick Yard Starts.

With a crew of 30 on hand and more needed, the George Kreiger brick yards were the scenes of activity yesterday. The plant will be kept running regularly to meet orders for La Grande brick.

Important Meeting Tonight

All members of the high school track team, and friends of the team are requested to meet this evening at the commercial club parlors for important business in connection with the coming Eastern Oregon track and field meet which is to be held here May 21. Important committee work is to be done.

Drama Well Liked.

It is only occasionally that La Grande patronizes a drama—the comic opera is more popular—but last night the Steward was comfortably filled with an audience that was on the whole well pleased with St. Elmo. Moving and active characters were well rendered and though the critical might find fault with the rather clumsy ending of the story itself, none could help but be entertained and morally bettered by close attention to the train of events wound into the play.
