ADAMS READY TO MACADAM

CONTRACTOR HAS COMPLETED THE EXCAVATIONS.

Work of Placing Macadam Will be Started This Week.

All excavations from Hemlock to the beginning of the county macadam road has been completed by contractor John Mars, and within the week, laying of macadam on that stretch of Adams avenue, will be commenced. The work of excavating has been retarded somewhat by the lack of mixing of cement and the like, are being hurried to completion and as soon as the contractor can arrange preliminaries, actual construction is to be commenced. This should be some time this week.

Neglected Opportunity.

"What do you regard as the most serious mistake of your life, Uncle Daniel?"

"Well, I think about the foolishest thing I ever did was to be cured of a disease with a big name by a stingy little patent medicine."

"Did it do the work?"

"Well, I said so in my letter to the company."

"Then where is your kick?"

"They only gave me a two line notice in the papers, while my cousin George, who got cured of a disease that wasn't half so long, got a full quarter of a page picture."

Needed To.

"She is learning to sing."

"Is she?"

"Yes."

"Has she had an estimate?"

"An estimate on what?"

"On her chances of life. I dare say she expects to live to a ripe old age."

His Element.

Dear, you would make a flying man, A fine one, I declare. It would be easy, for you know How much you're in the air.

Unworked Field.

"The trouble about being an author is that everything has been written."

"Except one thing."

"And what might that be?"

"The unwritten law."

Keeping up appearances at the same time that one is engaged in keeping down expenses calls for the united efforts of a diplomat and an expert.

The difference between a lawmaker and a lawbreaker isn't so much as might appear on first sight.

The woman who knows her own mind is often found not at all averse to extending its acquaintance.

Many labor saving devices turn out to be simply money spenders in disguise.

A self made man may as well appear to be proud of it, for he can't go back on the hallmark that is in plain sight.

When women break into the law-making class they undoubtedly will show the men some new stunts along the line of getting what they want.
