

About The City

Instructive Lecture.

Mrs. Jean Morris Ellis delivered a most instructive discourse last evening at the Central Church of Christ. The subject of her discourse was Phrenology. At the close of her lecture she gave four readings of four young people. Those who know these people declare that she understood her work. Mrs. Ellis lectures this evening at 8 o'clock. She will also give public readings at the close of her discourse. Mrs. Ellis will give private readings in the study of the church between the hours of 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. A stranger who was present last evening and heard the lecture remarked at the close, "Mrs. Ellis gave me a reading five years ago in Washington that I would not take dollars for."

Regular W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The W. C. T. U. at the last regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. M. J. Stephenson was led in the study class by Rev. Frank E. Gray. The topic was "Prohibition and the Word of God." Plans of the prohibition campaign were discussed. Mrs. Wallace Unruh, a state worker, will deliver an address in the Baptist church next Sunday evening. This will be a union service for the various churches.

Another Pioneer Departs.

Mrs. D. W. Johnson, a pioneer of Union county, who has lived near this city for a number of years, died this morning in this city after an illness of several weeks. She was 54 years of age and leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church in this city.

Busy Issuing Licenses.

No. not marriage licenses, but fisherman's and hunter's licenses are what is taking the time at the county clerk's offices these days. From 18 to 20 present themselves at the counter and ask for the little document that guarantees them from harm by the game warden in case they are caught while angling or trying to kill game.

Santa Fe Man In City.

Hugo Victor, traveling passenger agent for the Santa Fe, came in from Portland last night and is looking after business for his line. The name of Hugo Victor seems to be a transposition and it is hard for Jack O'Neil and the rest of the railroad boys to keep from calling the Santa Fe man Victor Hugo, which by the way, would be appropriate, judging from appearances.

Fair People Meet.

All members of the fair commission were present last evening at a meeting of that board. It was decided to let the good roads meeting be held in the tabernacle, and to send the premium list to the state printer at once. The date of the fair is Oct. 5 to 11 and that it will be even better than last year is foreordained.

Many Will Visit Cove.

If weather permits a large delegation of La Grande women will go to Cove tomorrow to visit the dual meet between La Grande and Cove. The local athletes are not overconfident for it is realized that Cove has a strong team and the various events will be fought out with close decisions it is believed.

Byron's Troubadors.

Remember that Byron's Troubadors are to be in the city next Friday, May 20th. A good, clean entertainment of vocal and instrumental music, given by the Agoga class of the Baptist Sunday school. Tickets on sale Wednesday at E. D. Selder's confectionery store.

Funeral This Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Martha Smith, of Pendleton, took place this afternoon from the undertaking parlors of Henry & Carr at 2 o'clock. Rev. Gray of the Baptist church officiating. Mrs. Smith was a relative of O. W. Moon, formerly of this city but now of Pendleton.

Ship Body to Utah.

Memorial services held in respect to the late George Glenn, Jr., were held this afternoon at the L. D. S. church. The young man died suddenly yesterday morning. The remains will be shipped to Wellsville, Utah, for interment beside the remains of a relative.

Addition to Laundry.

Cherry's New Laundry is constructing an addition to the plant and in a few days more will put on an additional delivery wagon.

Repainting Hardware Department.

The hardware department of the Golden Rule is being brightened up with a coat of new paint.

DELEGATES TO GO SUNDAY

MORE LODGE HONORS DUE THIS CITY NEXT YEAR.

Grand Master Already and President Assured La Grande Next Year.

Next Sunday La Grande's delegates to the I. O. O. F. grand lodge and Rebekah assembly at Eugene will leave this city to attend the sessions, and incidentally, it is supposed, that La Grande will have the distinction of being given the presidency of the Rebekah assembly. La Grande already has the grand master of the I. O. O. F. in Ed Coolidge who will assume the role of past grand master next week. Mrs. George Grout is next in line for the presidency of the general assembly.

The delegates who will attend from here, some of whom are already in Portland, are D. E. Cox, I. R. Snook, G. E. Fowler, George Grout, J. A. Arbuckle, Grand Master Coolidge, Mesdames Jennie Smith, D. E. Cox, J. A. Fraker and vice grand President, Mrs. Grout.

Bad Faith Charged

Washington, May 13.—Charges of bad faith on the part of President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham in connection with the Ballinger investigation, was made in the House today by Representative Harrison of New York. The charges were made when Harrison withdrew his resolution calling upon the Attorney General for the original memoranda and other data connected with his preparation of the summary of the Glavis charges. Harrison, a democrat, presented the resolution after the investigating committee had refused the request of Brandeis for the papers, and Harrison withdrew the resolution as Wickersham in a letter read by Ballinger yesterday admitted that the summary was prepared after the date it bore, which Harrison wanted to prove.

The prosecution in the Ballinger case turned from the investigation of the Alaskan coal lands to probe the restoration of entry of power sites under the Ballinger regime. Attorney Pepper, Pinchot's representative, forced Ballinger to admit that he had not studied the reclamation closely. It was apparent that Pepper sought to defend Director Newell of the reclamation service from the previous charges made by Ballinger.

Street and tailored hats at reduced prices Friday and Saturday. Mrs. L. Smith.

Handsome Oxfords

Our New Spring Line is full of them, from the chaste, plain design to the catchy, fancy patterns. There is a riot of styles here for you to choose from, and the time to see them is NOW---Tomorrow. Come in when you are down town tomorrow. See the new things if only to post yourself.

The Peters Shoe Company has outdone itself for us this season for beauty of patterns and superiority of workmanship, and these Diamond Brand shoes do have a way of wearing that is hard to equal.

MUSICAL PROGRAM OF MERIT TO SUPPLEMENT ADDRESS

A program intended to fittingly pay tribute by word and chant and voluntaries, has been prepared for the King Edward memorial services this evening at the Episcopal church. All Britons, former subjects of the late British ruler, Canadians and Masons and Knights Templar, are urged to attend the services. The program for the evening reads:

- Voluntary—"Beethoven's Funeral March."
- Hymn—"When our Hearts Are Bowled With Woe."
- Sentences.
- Chant—"Lord, Thou Hast Been Our Refuge."
- Lesson.
- Hymn—"On the Resurrection Morning."
- Address—Upton H. Gibbs.
- Solo—"Oh Rest in the Lord."
- Hymn—"A Few More Years Shall Roll."
- Benediction.
- "Dead March in Saul" (Congregation remains standing while it is being played.)

MANY ORATIONS FOR ORATORICAL CONTEST COME IN.

Orations to be delivered at the Eastern Oregon oratorical contest to be held in this city a week from Saturday night are coming in to Prof.

J. D. Stout rapidly this week, and as soon as all are here they will be sent to the English department of Whitman College to be passed upon for thought and composition. The delivery will be judged by three men to be decided upon at a later date here. Several schools who will not have representatives in the track meet at that date, are planning on having orators in this contest and some spirited competition is expected.
