BODINSON AND FAKE ADVERTISING.

It is decidedly refreshing to note the attitude taken by F. P. Bodinson, president of the Baker commercial club. He has put the kibosh on the advertising fake and urges his community to frown down any transient chap who has a program, a sign board or a fake directory.

Bodinson says he believes the newspaper is the only legitimate advertising vehicle in a community; that it does more in the community in which it is printed than any other one factor and frequently receives less appreciation.

He calls to mind the fact that the ordinary country dailies, such as are published in Baker City and in La Grande, are forced to meet a pay roll of about $200 a week, to say nothing of the expense for telegraph, rents, lights and incidentals.

If Bodinson had his way there would be a strenuous punishment for the man who enters a city to stay a day and rake in a little money on fake schemes.

Loyalty to home papers never loses a city a dollar. When wedding bells ring, the fakir never tells the story; when the death angel robs a family of a loved one the fakir never condescends with relatives and prints lines that give solace to the heart.

MAKE A PLACE FOR UNION.

The prosperous little city of Union located only a few miles from La Grande, has torn away what moss has been clinging to her vertebra and announced her intention of joining the great procession of progress.

townsite to obtain all that the average high school has to offer.

But there was a fight in Union to accomplish this result. The town was not harmonious on the subject and occasionally a gruff voice could be heard during the campaign saying, "these school houses are good enough. They're better than I ever had when I was a kid."

All of which is quite true, but the world has advanced since some of the old-timers were "kids." Union came out with flying colors in the fight for higher education and better school buildings.

Make a place for Union and her new schools. La Grande extends the welcoming hand, for we are happy to know the good work is going on all over the county.

GOT HIS WIREZ CROSSED.

The Baker City Herald in a column editorial takes the Observer to task for explaining why La Grande's athletes failed to capture more honors at the Walla Walla meet.

Strange that the Herald man should get so badly mixed on his quotations. So far as known the phrase quoted was never used in a political campaign.

As is seen the Herald is keen to pick a flaw in La Grande's record for clean sport, we shall be just as keen to overlook the editorial putting Hubbard before the public as a politician.
