IT ALSO makes new. There will be no looking for furniture or dishes or work in homes where this wonder worker is used. For refinishing or revarnishing necessary. Liquid Veneer is not a varnish, but a surface food and cleanser that builds up the original finish and makes it brighter than ever.

It restores to life the brilliant newness and finish of Pianos, Furniture, Picture Frames, Interior Woodwork, Hardwood Floors and all polished, varnished or oiled surfaces. Removes scratches, stains, dirt and dullness. A child can apply it. Nothing but a piece of cheese cloth is needed and there is no drying to wait for.

FORTUNES WILL BE BET ON BIG MILL.

As a betting proposition the forthcoming fight between Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson will probably be without equal in the history of the sporting world. Counting the wagers that are being made in this country, as well as the hundreds of thousands of dollars that will be staked on the outcome in other quarters of the globe. It is estimated that between $400,000 and $5,000,000 all told will change hands.

Grub Street's Pawnshop.

The Avant is not the oldest and best known pawnshop in the world it deserves to be. It has been in existence ever since the days of Shakespeare and Ben Jonson. It is in Fleet street—Grub street—and has been the poor writer's uncle for all these centuries and years. It has an old legend something like this: "Old Literary Friends Never Forgotten." There are many souvenirs, sayings and traditions of the greatest men on earth who, going broke, had to patronize it. Outside of its own name it is well known as the Grub street pawnshop.—London Mail.

Unspellable.

The Newfoundland seal folk for some reason not given by the St. John's correspondent of the New York Sun describe their greasy spoil as "swolls," and they also say they "spell" an object when they mean to carry it. One can imagine the amazement of the young cleric who on one occasion asked a burly hunter how he spelled "swolls."

"We don't spell 'em; we haul 'em," was the bewildering reply.

The Retort Courteous.

"I hate to press this bill, Mr. Slow-pay," said the tailor, taking a much wrinkled memorandum of accounts from his pocket. "but—"

"Oh, don't bother, Snip," said Slow-pay genially. "You don't need to press it. I don't mind the wrinkles in it at all. Fact is, I've got a dozen fresh copies of it at home already."—Judge.
