

IT MAKES OLD THINGS NEW

LIQUID VENEER

IT ALSO keeps them new. There will be no old, dull looking furniture or dingy woodwork in homes where this wonder-worker is used. No refinishing or revarnishing necessary. Liquid Veneer is not a varnish, but a surface food and cleaner that builds up the original finish and makes it brighter than ever.

It instantly restores the brilliant newness and finish of Pianos, Furniture, Picture Frames, Interior Woodwork, Hardwood Floors and all polished, varnished or enameled surfaces. Removes scratches, stains, dirt and dullness. A child can apply it. Nothing but a piece of cheese cloth is needed and there is no drying to wait for.

REMOVE POLES TO SIDEWALKS

ELECTRIC COMPANY MUST RE-PLANT THEIR POLES.

Another Step in Preparation for Paving Being Taken this Week.

Another step in preparation for the coming of paving, is being taken today when the Eastern Oregon Light & Power company is removing its power line poles from the streets and resetting them in the cement walks. The task is a slow one, but will be accomplished in time to permit excavation as soon as planned.

The Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph company has already placed its poles in the sidewalks and consequently is not effected by the paving orders.

Home Independent Telephone company wires are underground in the business districts and they too will of course be unmolested during the paving.

THE MILKY WAY.

A Hundred Million Stars Glean in That Silvery Scarf.

The census of the starry sky is concerned almost entirely with the Milky way. The number of stars not connected with it is negligible. But when you look at the Milky way the idea of numbering its stars seems the dream of a madman. It stretches all round the sky. Its extent is so unthinkably immense that science has never undertaken to measure it, and the imagination could not grasp the figures that such a measurement, if it was possible to make it, would involve.

Yet that whole enormous expanse of space occupied by the Milky way is so crowded with stars that they make upon the eye the impression of a silvery scarf wound round the brow of the universe.

It requires a telescope to see them as a broad zone of glittering points instead of an almost uniform band of whiteness in the firmament.

In some places they are more thinly scattered, so that, as you gaze through the glass, you almost think that, with infinite patience, you might count the number included in a space as large as the face of the moon.

But in other places they seem to be packed together like the sands of the seashore. They stretch away over thousands of square degrees of space, hanging in great festoons, spreading out in vast banners, where billions upon billions of cubic miles seem to be filled with stars thicker than the flakes in a driving snowstorm!

There are bejeweled knots in that starry scarf so rich that the eye is dazzled and the mind confused by the spectacle which they present.

Yet science, although it shrinks from trying to estimate the space which they occupy, has succeeded in forming a fairly correct enumeration of the stars of the Milky way.

The most extravagant estimates do not put the number at more than 300,000,000, and the most trustworthy and probable make them a third less.

A hundred million stars, then, is the total population of the glittering universe, and when we see what a marvelous effect of innumerable they produce we begin to appreciate what a hundred millions mean.—Garrett P. Serviss in New York American.
