

About The City

Victim Known Here.

It is believed that Ray Utter, the young man blown to pieces at Hood River yesterday by the explosion of a garage, is the young man who at one time made his home in La Grande.

Utter was employed in the Observer office several months and became popular among the young and old alike while in the city.

Pleased With La Grande.

T. B. McCall and son Earl who are visiting relatives, after several days' sight seeing in the valley and surrounding country, stated to the Observer that their expectations had been more than fulfilled and they believed this is the place of all the northwest that offers the best opportunities.

Band Dance Tonight.

Everything is in readiness for the band dance to be given this evening. A ten-piece orchestra will supply the music and a good time is promised all who attend. The proceeds will go to equip the band with new music and maintain the regular expenses of the organization.

Miss Leadworth Here Again.

Miss Elsie Leadworth, daughter of Mrs. Leadworth, of this city, has been assigned to the local Western Union office as operator. Miss Leadworth has been in Baker City several years, going there after having completed her apprenticeship in the local office.

Coming to Locate.

Frank Polack of Brooklyn, who has been in the grocery business in the Eastern city, is coming to La Grande to visit his brother E. Polack, and expects to locate in this city permanently.

After Tameless Dogs.

Many dogs are meeting their fate today at the hands of Poundmaster Grider. All animals that are not tagged go the way of the guilty.

BRIDAL PARTY GOES HOME

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN HOLMES PASS THROUGH CITY.

Fashionable Wedding Occurred in Portland Yesterday Morning.

College romance, commenced when the groom was a student at H. M. A., culminated in marriage at Portland yesterday morning at 9 o'clock when Edwin Holmes and Miss Florence Hollister, daughter of Doctor Hollister of Portland, were married in the First Presbyterian church of Portland under auspicious circumstances. Mrs. Walter Hascome sang the wedding services and Mr. Courson, the well known pianist, was the accompanist. Elegant presents were lavished on Mr. and Mrs. Holmes.

The bridal party accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. "Gene" Holmes, parents of the groom, arrived in the city this morning on their way to Wallows where they will be at home to their many friends.

Visit Famous Places.

London, May 19.—Colonel Roosevelt, United States Marshal Seth Buller and R. J. Cunningham, Roosevelt's hunting companion in America, went sight seeing today. They visited Westminster Abbey, Tower of London and spent several hours at the British museum.

A Cold Bite.

"You were twenty miles from the north pole and starving!" exclaimed the credulous housewife. "And how did you save yourself?"

"Why, mum," responded Frigid Fred as he wiped away a tear, "in my starving moments I remembered the Eskimo dogs. Pushing out through the snow, I twisted one of der ribs, an' den—"

"And then what, my poor man?"

"I got a cold bite."—Chicago News.
