CONGRESSMEN'S WIVES' CLUB

Members to Have Directory Showing Their Achievements.

In imitation of their husbands, whose names and deeds are recorded in the Congressional Directory, the members of the Congressional club, composed of the wives of national lawmakers, intend to have a blue book of their own.

The idea originated with Mrs. Champ Clark, better half of the minority leader of the house of representatives. Each member of the club has been asked to furnish a brief biography of herself, and among other questions is asked:

"If thrown on your own resources what could you do to win a living for yourself?"

A full record as to genealogy and personal achievements is requested.

Mrs. Clark believes that the book will not only lend dignity to the club, but that it will act as a cementing bond between the members. Each new session of congress will see a new blue book.
