TEAMS SELECT DATES

PERMANENT SCHEDULE MADE FOR COMING SEASON.

Season Will Close September 13, here and at Enterprise.

Future playing dates between clubs in the Inter-county league, have been established, at a meeting held in this city this week. Commencing with Enterprise at La Grande and Elgin at Joseph, the permanent schedule will stay in force until September 13, closing with Elgin at La Grande and Joseph at Enterprise.

Two Double Excursions.

The schedule is so arranged that two double excursions will be run by the managements from one county to the other. Elgin and La Grande will invade Wallowa county the same day, playing at different places. In the other instance, Joseph and Enterprise will come to Union county with one excursion.

Wallowa and Imbler Out.

While it appeared likely, for a time, that Wallowa and Imbler would be added to the list of clubs of the league, the petitions of these two towns have been finally turned down and four clubs comprise the league.

Guild Tea.

The ladies of St. Peter's Guild will serve a substantial tea at the home of Mrs. James Russell, corner of Main and Third St., on Thursday from five to eight o'clock. 25c a plate.

BASEBALL A LOTTERY, SAYS TIM MURNAE.

"Baseball is a lottery," spels Sir Timothy Murnane, "where luck plays a very important part, yet the club with the capable scouts and aggressive presidents will forge to the front and finally land the big rakeoff. Baseball is little different from any other business requiring brain and push.

"The shrewd club owner with the big bank roll, the capable scouts and the first class manager is bound to forge to the front.

"All he has to do is to 'loosen up.'"

Murnane criticises the Giants for not "scouring" the country for the rising young players. The annual profits of the New York club are $300,000, yet Brush and McGraw are mostly depending on veterans.

"No man living has anything on McGraw in handling ball players," concludes Sir Timothy. "but in gathering clever young talent he is a practical failure."

With millions behind him John L. Taylor of the Boston Americans did "scour" the country for youngsters. Result: He has one of the best teams in the leagues. Money makes the mare go.

Planning to Convert the World

To convert the entire world—this, in a nutshell, is the aim of a new religious movement that is attracting worldwide attention. The inspiration and backbone of this colossal undertaking is the laymen's missionary movement, which numbers among its supporters and workers men high in the world of finance and various lines of successful business life. They come from every Protestant church in the land regardless of creed and expect to carry the gospel to every non-Christian in the world within the next thirty-five years. The figures furnished by the laymen's missionary movement give one some idea of the immense task it has set out to accomplish. The population of the entire world is 1,500,000,000. Of this number only one-third are Christians, and to fulfill the vow taken will require a great sum, the amount needed being estimated at $55,000,000 annually, which means $1,925,000,000 to complete the work.

"This will strike many as some wild scheme that will fall through almost before the work has begun," said J.

J. CAMPBELL WHITE

Campbell White, general secretary of the laymen's missionary movement, in speaking of their plans recently, "but we have every assurance that this great religious propaganda, the greatest the world has ever known, will go on successfully to the end. Back of it are wealthy and enthusiastic men from all the Protestant churches, who will devote much of their time and money to the work. The common notion has been that so vast an undertaking would require several generations, if not centuries. The other belief is that when Christ said 'Preach the gospel to every creature' he meant his people in every age to do it—in other words, that it is the clear duty of the present generation of Christians to carry or send the message of Christ to the entire non-Christian world of our generation."

The chairman of the executive committee of the laymen's missionary movement is Dr. Samuel B. Capen, a Boston merchant. He is a member of the Boston chamber of commerce and serves on its committee on metropolitan and municipal affairs. Dr. Capen has recently been relieved of some of his business responsibilities in order that he may have more time to devote to the movement.

The movement has already begun with a three days' convention in Chicago, called to discuss ways and means for carrying on the propaganda. The addresses were not confined to the laymen, but included among others Dr.

Free Watch and Diamond Ring

In order to increase our sales, save time and expense in calling on so many that already have pianos or if such a thing were possible, "Do not desire a piano," we offer to the person that will fill out the coupon below, and send or bring to us and as the result of which an instrument is sold, a seventeen-jewel Waltham watch; given to you in a beautiful gold case designed to suit you. Or by giving us the names of three persons who purchase, a beautiful diamond ring will be your reward. We want every family in Eastern Oregon to have a piano and to accomplish our aim we need your cooperation and so make this liberal offer. We set aside five per cent of our business to advertising and in this way you can work for us, and save us time and expense. This is not a lottery or a bogus coupon proposition where the prizes are raised so as to allow the $100 on the coupon. Nor is it necessary for you to draw a picture (you may not be an artist); but a legitimate proposition where you work for us.

Do you know of a person that contemplates purchasing an instrument? If so fill out the coupon and get a watch or ring.

We notify you at once if you send in a name that has already been turned in and give you the name of party that sent it.
