About the City

New Fire-proof Curtain.
The Steward opera house has installed a new fire-proof drop curtain and made material additions to the scenery on the stage. The old curtain needed repairs and instead of doing that, Manager Steward purchased a new drop. The other scenery will be used at the first opportunity.

Funeral Sunday.
E. Coffinberry, who died yesterday, from wounds accidentally inflicted by a boy at Union, will be buried Sunday afternoon from his home at Union.

Guest Put to Work.
Chief of Police Walden reports that James Collis, of Hermiston, has been given permission to work seven and a half days on the streets as the result of a drunk.

ERROR IN FIGURES.

Koeler Tract Sold for Three Thousand and Instead of Three Hundred.

An error crept into the Observer yesterday in reporting the Koeler tract sale near Union. The eighty acres brought three thousand rather than three hundred dollars.

Stop Gigantic Swindle.
Chicago, May 28.—Secret service agents of the post office are perfecting evidence here today showing a million dollar green goods swindle was planned. Federal officials stopped it just as promoters had prepared to flood the country with letters offering spurious government notes at a low cost.

club home before disbanding for the summer months. During the business session it was decided that Mesdames E. C. Moore, George Bernie and T. J. Scroggin plan the music for the Musicale's afternoon at the Chautauqua. It was also decided that the Musicale keep its present quarters on Sixth street for the coming year. A motion was carried to send a note of thanks to the local newspapers for the many courtesies received during the past year.

The program rendered consisted of four numbers any one of which deserves special mention:
Piano Solo, "Boat Song" (Goddard)
..... Miss Oliver
Vocal Solo, "The Forgotten Land"
..... Miss Young
Violin Solo, "Solo de Concert,"
..... Miss Bertha Young
Reading, "The Wilds of Oregon"
..... Mrs. E. C. Moore

The last number is a reading of Mrs. Moore's own composition and it showed that La Grande besides talented musicians and singers, has also a poet of no small ability.

After the program new officers were installed and President Mrs. Scroggin was escorted to the chair and addressed the members in a most fitting manner. She expressed her pleasure at heading the Musicale, complimented the good work done, and lauded the retiring officers. She admonished the members to continue their fidelity to the club and aid in placing it on even higher levels. The social hour ended the afternoon. The retiring officers served fancy sherbet and wafers and a general good time was had.

Teachers of the Central building enjoyed a campus luncheon yesterday noon. However only the lady teachers were eligible.

Mrs. Frank Bay entertained the afternoon sewing club this week at her home.

Mesdames T. J. Scroggin and C. H. Upton will entertain next week in honor of Mrs. A. L. Richardson who has recently returned from a winter visit to New York

The Juniors of the high school will give a reception this evening at the K. of P. hall in honor of the Senior class. Due to examinations and commencement affairs the function was delayed until after the graduation last evening.
